INSURANCE MEN SCENT TROUBLE

Local Agents Would Take Steps to Placate Public Sentiment.

WOULD DIRECT TREND

Important Matters Considered by Indianapolis Convention— Indiana News.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—The National association of local fire insurance agents today discussed commissions and the general relations of company and agent.

O. E. Johnson, of Charlestown, S. C., and Clarence S. Pellet, of Chicago, led the discussion of "Methods of Compensation to Local Agents." A number of resolutions bearing on the obligation of agents to hold renewals for the companies in which the insurance had been carried so long as the agents represent these companies were introduced and discussed.

The feature of this afternoon's session were addresses by D. M. Parry, of Indianapolis, on the "Attitude of the Public Toward Fire Insurance" and by W. N. Bament on the San Francisco disaster and fire loss.

C. H. Woodworth, of St. Louis, introduced a resolution which favored a uniform commission of 15 per cent. nat and 15 per cent. contingent on all classes of business throughout the country. The resolution favored the elimination of the salaried agent or local manager. Speaking to the resolution, Mr. Woodworth said:

"Public sentiment has reached the fire insurance business and if we don't regulate our affairs, it will step in and regulate them by legislature enactments—this just behind the curtain now, and I now propose that we make an effort to regulate them ourselves and pacify public sentiment."

The resolution met with general approval and was sent to the resolutions committee.

After the president's address Mary W. Plummer, director of Pratt Institute, a school of library training at Brooklyn, N. Y., spoke on "Qualifications of the Librarian and the Librarian's Duty to Himself."

COAL PRICE TO STICK.

No Further Advance of Indiana Product this Month.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 18.—There will be no further advance in the price of coal at the mines in Indiana this month. When the 25-cent advance was made the first of the month it was said another advance would be made between the 15th and 20th but this will not be done and October will close with prices about as they were November 1 a year ago, although the advance October 1 put them above the prices at that date last year. The output is increasing but is still greatly curtailed by the car shortage.

WANTS ACCOUNTING OF CAMPAIGN FUND

CONCINNATI CONTRIBUTOR HAS BEGUN A SUIT.

Intimation is That $140,000 Left Over Has Gone Into Pockets of the Managers.

Cincinnati, Oct. 18.—An accounting for the sum of $170,102 alleged to be the amount of the republican campaign fund for the last year in this city, was demanded in a suit filed today by Louis H. Kentz, a former city employe, who says he contributed $15 to the fund. The petition asks for an accounting and for the distribution among the contributors of $140,000 believed to have been on hand after the campaign expenses were paid. The finance committee and its individual members are made defendants. The petition gives among the alleged contributions the sum of $6,250 from federal employes, $625 from state officials, from private corporations $59,500 and from public service and steam railways $50,000. The suit was filed in the common pleas court.

STRIKES LEGAL; UNIONS UPHELD

LABOR WINS DISTINCT VICTORY IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Tribunal Says Workmen May Exercise Common Law Right, But Must Not Involve Third Party.

Boston, Oct. 18.—"The right of laborers to organize unions and to utilize such organizations by instituting a strike is an exercise of the common law right of every citizen to pursue his calling, whether of labor or business, as he in his judgment thinks fit. The unions have a right to determine what kind of workmen shall compose the union."

This is the sweeping ruling of the supreme court of Massachusetts in a decision handed down yesterday in the case of an appeal from an injunction obtained by the stone pointers against the stone cutters. After going on to say in effect that one union may legally combine against another union, even to the point of disaster to the union combined against, the court rules that it is not legal for a union to involve an innocent third party in its dispute.

Court Gives Illustration.

It says: "In our opinion organized laborer's right of coercion and compulsion is limited to strikes on persons with whom the organization has a trade dispute, or to put it another way, we are of the opinion that a strike on A, with whom the striker has no trade dispute, to compel A to force B to yield to the strikers' demands, is an unjustifiable interference with the rights of A to pursue his calling as he thinks best."

The case grew out of a dispute between the stone cutters and the stone pointers employed by a Boston contractor. The cutters demanded that the employer dismiss the pointers, who had refused to join the cutters' union.

Effect of the Decision.

The pointers thereupon secured an injunction against the cutters, and the latter carried their appeal to the supreme court. An effect of the decision not less important than that of the right of laborers to organize and to strike is the decision in effect that a sympathetic strike is not legal, for the court says that unless there is direct trade dispute between the parties involved in the strike it cannot be admitted to be lawful; that a strike which involves an innocent third party is one which becomes sympathetic as against the third party.

PYTHIANS ELECT SUPREME OFFICERS

ILLINOIS MAN CHOSEN GRAND CHANCELLOR.

Following Election Consideration of Changes in Insurance is Taken Up.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—The supreme lodge Knights of Pythias today elected the following officers:

Supreme chancellor, Charles A. Barnes, Jacksonville, Ill.; supreme vice-chancellor, Henry P. Brown, Cleburne, Texas; supreme prelate, Leo A. Caro, Grand Rapids, Mich.; supreme keeper of records and seal, R. L. White, Nashville, Tenn.; supreme master of exchequer, Thomas D. Mears, Wilmington, N. C.

The following officers were elected by the national grand keepers of records and seal:

U. S. Burns, Milwaukee, president; Olonzo Bedell, New York, first vice-president; J. D. McLean, New Orleans, second vice-president; H. D. Walker, Iowa, third vice-president; George W. Bartlett, Little Rock, Ark., secretary; H. M. Quinn, Jackson, Miss., treasurer.

The important business of the Knights of Pythias convention was reached and taken up today, beginning with the election of the foregoing supreme officers. Next in importance is consideration of the proposed revision of the Pythian insurance laws.

These proposals, as outlined by John M. Adams, of Fort Worth, Tex., secretary of the special committee on endowment rank, give to the members of this rank the same security as old line insurance companies, including about the same reserves, paid up and extended insurance and the making of policies incontestable after three years. It is not proposed to change the old fourth clause with its $1,500,000 surplus provision, but the privilege will be offered each member to transfer without medical examination into the new rank.

Another important proposition is that of uniting the Rathbone and Pythian sisters.

In the competitive drills the following companies appeared today:

Kansas City, No. 3; Fort Dearborn company, No. 1, of Illinois; Terre Haute company, No. 3, and Kokomo company, No. 6, both of Indiana; the Seattle company, of Seattle, Wash., and the Pikes Peak company, No. 1, of Denver.

BANKERS DECIDE ON DRASTIC MOVE

Will Attempt to Force the Express Companies to Quit Banking.

WILL GET EVIDENCE

Interstate Commerce Commission to Be Urged and Aid to Be Given in Prosecutions.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—The American Bankers' association in session here today declared war on those express companies which do a banking business. In a resolution that was adopted the association authorized a commitee with power to act whose duty shall be to furnish evidence of the violation of the interstate commerce law by express companies and to place this evidence before the interstate commerce commission. The text of the resolution follows:

"That the executive council of the American Bankers' association appoint a committee with power to act, whose duty it shall be to gather evidence of the breaking of the interstate commerce law by the express companies in doing a banking business and place same before the interstate commerce commission with the avowed intention of compelling said express companies to discontinue the banking business; furthermore that the executive council of the American Bankers' association be authorized to place such funds as they may deem advisable in the hands of the aforesaid committee for the purpose of collecting and presenting such evidence."

The convention adjourned until tomorrow.

DETAILS OF THE SESSION.

Proceedings of the American Bankers' Association Convention.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Elastic currency and currency reform constituted the paramount topic at today's session of the convention of the American Bankers association. Several efforts were made yesterday by different delegates to bring the subject before the convention for discussion and action but counter efforts were successful in deferring this purpose for the day in order that the routine reports might be presented. There was not sufficient time for the submission of all the reports and a number went over until today.

Clearing House Committee Report.

The first report presented today was that of the clearing house conference committee. The report set forth that unquestionably the evil of country checks and par points is and has been for some years one of the most important subjects which the banks have had to consider. The report stated that efforts are being made by the clearing houses of the country to eradicate the evil, but that many of the clearing houses have poor systems of rules looking toward the accomplishment of this result, some of them being without even an effective organization and the committee believes that the work should be carried out on broader lines with more scope. The committee heartily recommended the adoption of the proposed amendment to the by-laws of the association by the addition of a section to be known as the clearing house section and that the section be given representation on the executive counsel. Such a section would then be in a position to vigorously push the work in hand.

Bill of Lading Committee Report.

The report of the bill of lading committee dealt with the methods of handling bills of lading by banks and called attention to the importance of legislative regulation.

National legislation concerning domestic bills of lading would vastly

RUSSIAN ADMIRAL MAKES A SHOWING

NEBOGATOFF'S TRIAL GIVING HIM SOME CREDIT.

Reasons are Established for His Part in the Defeat at Battle of Sea of Japan.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—The preliminary investigation into the surrender by Rear Admiral Nebogatoff of his squadron at the battle of the sea of Japan, is said to be decidedly favorable to the admiral. The latter in the official protocol prepared for his approaching trial by court martial emphasizes the hopelessly disabled condition of his two principal ships, the lack of ammunition and the exhaustion of the crews at the time of the surrender. The battleship Orel, instead of being almost uninjured, as stated shortly after the battle, was so damaged May 27, 1905 that the commander asked the Admiral Rojestvensky for permission to destroy her She was on the point of sinking the next morning and only had two heavy guns in action. The battleship Nicholas I of the same squadron, also was leaking, one of her twelve inch guns was disabled and her boats were shot away. An imperial order was published this morning commuting the sentences of the four officers of the torpedo boat destroyer Bedovi, who, with Admiral Rojestvensky, were tried at Cronstadt July 4 on the charge of surrendering to the enemy and were found guilty and condemned to death by shooting. On account of extenuating circumstances Emperor Nicholas was requested to commute the sentences to dismissal.

The final step in the demobilization of Russia's great Manchurian army was taken today when an order was published disbanding the staff of the army of the far east as it is officially designated, whose commander, General Grodekoff, was lately relieved. Only a corps commander will remain in Manchuria until the completion of the evacuation of that territory. The Russian troops in Siberia are already on a peace footing.

DR. ROSENTHAL ILL IN CHICAGO

WILL TAKE WESTERN TRIP TO RECUPERATE HEALTH.

Eminent Surgeon Suffered Breakdown from Overwork, But Condition is Now Improved.

Dr. Maurice Rosenthal, of this city, one of the most eminent surgeons of the middle west, has been very ill in Chicago for several days. He is suffering from a break-down due to overwork, but it is said that his condition is already improved, and he will leave Chicago today for an extended tour of the west for the purpose of recuperating his health.

Into the fifteen years in which Dr. Rosenthal has been engaged in practice he has crowded an amount of work ordinarily accomplished in a professional life of much longer duration. He has risen to conspicuous eminence as a surgeon, and the development of his splendid ability only brought each year added demands upon his strength. He has devoted himself untiringly and unceasingly to his professional work until his strength has been overtaxed and a complete rest is now imperative.

Something more than a week ago he went to Chicago on professional matters with his very close friend, Dr. Alexander Hugh Ferguson, who is one of Chicago's most eminent surgeons, and it is upon the advice of Dr. Ferguson that Dr. Rosenthal will now seek to regain his health through a complete rest from professional labors. Even the few days that he has been apart from his professional labors have resulted in marked improvement, and it is believed that an extended tour of the west, with change of scene and relief from professional cares for a few months will enable Dr. Rosenthal to completely regain his health. Meanwhile his practice here will be cared for by Dr. Charles J. Rosenthal and Dr. J. H. Gilpin until Dr. Rosenthal is able to resume his professional duties actively.

WILL WITHDRAW MARINES.

Regular Troops to Replace Blue Jackets in Cuba.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Orders will be issued within a few days for the withdrawal of all but five hundred of the marines now in Cuba. They will be replaced by additional levies of troops drawn from this country until the total force in Cuba numbers about 7,000. Brigadier General Bell, chief of staff, will probably be withdrawn from Cuba within a month of two and the names of Generals Wint and Duvall are under consideration to succeed him.

ACCEPTS THREE MEN.

Sergeant Bard, in charge of the local army recruiting station, has returned from Payne, Ohio, where he went on a recruiting trip. While in that city he had eleven applicants for enlistment, only three of whom successfully passed the examinations.

Corporal Bailess, in charge of the local marine corps recruiting station, had one rejection today.

EXTENDED A CALL.

At a meeting of the school board of the St. John's Lutheran church last evening a call was extended to Prof. August Roehrs, of Detroit, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Schmidt, who has gone to the faculty of the Wernly orphan asylum at Richmond. It is not known whether Prof. Roehrs will accept the position

STANDARD OIL JURY STILL OUT

The Twelve Sitting in Judgment on Octopus are Unable to Agree.

WERE OUT ALL NIGHT

Late This Afternoon No Verdict Had Been Reached and a Disagreement is Predicted.

Findlay, O., Oct. 18.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon the jury before which was tried the case of the state of Ohio against the Standard Oil company of Ohio for alleged conspiracy in restraint of trade was still out and had given no evidence that a verdict was in sight. The jury retired at 8:30 last evening and was out all night.

The jury was taken out at 7 o'clock to breakfast and on its return the droning sound of the argument which had come from the locked room throughout the night was heard again. Attorneys for the defense are confident the twelve men will be unable to agree. They look for such an announcement to be made almost any time. There wil be an effort made by the state to give the jury plenty of time to endeavor to reconcile their differences. If this policy should prevail the jury may be sent back should it endeavor too early to get discharged on the plea that an agreement cannot be had.

The general opinion here now is that no verdict can be reached by the jury and that a disagreement will be reported. The court will hold the jury until it is wholly certain that no agreement can be had.

Jury Comes In.

At 1:55 o'clock the jury on its own request was brought before the court, declared it had not reached a verdict, had no request to make and was told by Judge Banker that he did not feel that the case had been given sufficient consideration and he therefore asked the jury to return to its room and give the case further consideration. The twelve men went out without a word. The application for an audience with the court came first at 1:30 when the bailiff was called and told that the jury wished to be instructed how to render a "verdict of disagreement." When the court and attorneys had assembled, however, the jury indicated that it was not quite ready to come into court. When it did some 25 minutes later Judge Banker remarked "have you agreed on a verdict?"

"Your Honor, we have not" responded the foreman.

After a pause the court remarked "have you any requests to make?"

"I think not" came the mild voice of the foreman.

"I do not feel that you have given the case the length of time in consideration that you should and therefore ask you to return to the jury room for further consideration."

Without another word and still in the impressive silence the jury filed back to its room and was locked up.

CONFER ON OIL INDICTMENTS.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—United States District Attorney J. J. Sullivan, of Cleveland, and United States District Attorney Sims, of Chicago, were in consultation today concerning the indictments in the local district court against the Standard Oil company of Indiana. Mr. Sullivan declared that he came to Chicago to have an understanding regarding the conduct of the case when it was called for trial.

WHITE RIBBONERS DOWN TO BUSINESS

WORK OF W. C. T. U. SESSIONS NOW IN PROGRESS IN BOSTON.

Feeling Letter is Received from Lady Henry Somerset, World President of the Union.

Boston, Oct. 18—The actual business of the triennial convention of the Worlds Women's Christian Temperance union in this city was begun today. An early forenoon service in the Park street church was followed by the opening of the convention proper in Tremont temple, the delegates being called to order by Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, of Portland, Me., vice-president at large of the Worlds W. C. T. U. The president, Lady Henry Somerset, being detained at home by illness, Mrs. Stevens will preside throughout the convention.

The program provided that Governor Guild should extend the welcome of the state and Mayor Fitzgerald that of the city before the roll call of members. The remainder of the day was to be taken up with organization and the reports of officers, committees and missionaries.

This evening there will be a public meeting in the Tremont temple, at which addresses will be made by prominent foreign delegates.

Mrs. Stevens called the convention to order. After brief devotional exercises, Mrs. Stevens read a letter from Lady Henry Somerset, of England, president of the world's W. C. T. U.

The letter from Lady Henry Somerset which is dated October 2 and addressed "My Dear Friends and Comrades" says in part:

My heart is with you today on the opening morning of the convention of the World's Christian Temperance Union and my memory goes back to the day in Faneuil hall, when for the first time I came face to face with so many comrades, now well known and beloved friends. The tie that was formed so long ago has not loosened with the years but rather in the stress and strain of work has it been drawn closer.

You come gathered from many countries, you bring to the convention experiences many and varied. You are glad to be refreshed by companionship, to learn from one another and to get new inspiration from this great assembly. To protect the home, to banish the saloon, to shelter the weak and to preserve the strong, these are your intentions in your warfare against the liquor traffic. And there is another motive power, for it is the fulfilling of the will of God which gives the great impetus to your work, the fulfilling of His will as well in this legislative history of nations as in individual lives. This is the reason for our very existence as a great world-wide society. It is the foundation upon which the whole structure of our temperance work is built. In your convention I pray most of all for you, that the power of the spirit of God may be in your midst.

It was voted to send a cablegram of appreciation to Lady Somerset. Mrs. Stevens announced that the representatives of the W. C. T. U.'s different countries had presented to Lady Henry a bell to be placed in the chapel at London where she worships. The bell is already in place. A cablegram from Lady Henry read regarding this was as follows:

"Grateful, humble, loving thanks for the silver-toned voice."

Governor Guild then welcomed the delegates on behalf of the commonwealth and Mayor Fitzgerald for the city of Boston.

Treasurer's Report.

The treasurer's report covering the period from June 1, 1905 to May 31, 1906 showed net receipts $4,585 and disbursements of $3,843 and a balance on hand of $2,378. The receipts from the United States were $2,304. Of the disbursements $2,188 went for W. C. T. U. mission work in many countries; $949 for expenses of officers and the remainder for miscellaneous expenses. A contribution was made to the Japanese famine fund. Contributions were received from the United States, Canada, Chile, Africa, Asia, Australia and a number of European countries.

The report of the executive committee caused some discussion with reference to the status of life members. Finally recommendations that life members be allowed to vote in world's conventions provided they are active members of some local union, was adopted.

The report of Mrs. Agnes Slack, honorary secretary of the world's W. C. T. U., was presented. It showed that gains had been made nearly everywhere in number of members and in activity. The greatest proportional gain has been made in Sweden, where a membership of 798 three years ago has been raised to 2,603. In India there are three local unions with a total membership of 994. Scientific temperance instructions has been introduced in the schools.

REVOKES TEACHER'S LICENSE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—Fassett A. Cotton, state superintendent of public instruction yesterday revoked the license of Benhart N. Fendig, the teacher in the Jasper county schools whom Supt. ## CITY OFFICIALS LOOK FOR LEAKS

Waterworks Revenues Not in Proportion to the Water Pumped.

LOSSES ARE HEAVY

A Million Gallons of Water a Day That is Worth $100 is Going Out With No Returns.

Mayor Hosey and the board of public works are making an investigation to ascertain why the amount of water pumped through the system during September of this year was about 178,000,000 gallons as against 142,000,000 the corresponding month of last year without showing a proportionate increase in the revenues of the department.

At the present rate charged consumers the increased consumption should bring in cash receipts about $100 a day over and above what was paid in during September, 1905, and the fact that the city is not getting this money caused the heads of the departments to look for the leakage. None of the members of the board has a theory to advance and the mayor stated today that he is as much in the dark as anybody else.

The figures point to a big leakage at some point but the fact that most of the manufacturing concerns have been recently investigated and unfavorable conditions remedied so far as the supply of meters would admit started the officials to look for leaks in the mains and everything will be thoroughly tested.

RELIEF CORPS IS IN SESSION HERE

MEMBERS OF EIGHTH DISTRICT MEET IN K. OF P. HALL.

Convention Will Close This Evening With a Campfire to Which the Public is Invited.

Waugh, of Tipton, and Junior Department President Mrs. Emma Studebaker, of Bluffton, are also attending the sessions.

The morning sesion was opened with a song by the audience and a prayer by Rev. C. A. Rowand. Following this Mrs. A. H. Kintz gave the address of welcome in which she greeted the guests and recounted the good which the district conventions have done for the benefit of the order. Mrs. Malott, of Decatur, gave the response and thanked the former speaker for her hospitable works and said that Fort Wayne was to be congratulated on having such a very efficient corps as Slon S. Bass Corps No. 7.

Increase in Membership.

Reports were then read showing that the eighth district has had a large increase in membership during the past year and is in a most prosperous condition. Over $600 has been spent for relief work extension in the past twelve months and the treasury department is in a highly satisfactory state.

Mrs. Emma Studebaker gave the delegates instructions in parliamentary drill and Department President Waugh commended the excellent work of all the corps in the eighth district and praised them highly for their patriotic zeal. Adjournment was then taken for luncheon.

This afternoon Judge S. M. Hench gave an address to the meeting in behalf of Slon S. Bass post, of which he is a member, and a number of ladies entertainingly rendered several selections and musical numbers. Thomas W. Blair, whose father was one of the men engaged in the memorable conflict, delivered an address from the standpoint of a son of a veteran and the meeting closed with a benediction by Rev. C. A. The league is in a very good condition, having about 115 members and is growing rapidly.

SUGAR REBATERS IN FOR BIG FINE

OFFICIALS OF RAILWAY ARE FOUND GUILTY.

Trial Results in Victory for the Government Under the Elkins Anti-Rebate Law.

New York, Oct. 18.—The New York Central railroad company and its general traffic manager, Frederick L. Pomeroy, were found guilty yesterday on six counts each of giving unlawful rebates in 1904 to the American Sugar Refining company by a jury in the United States circuit court. The conviction makes each defendant liable to a fine of $120,000, $20,000 for each offense. The indictment, though indicating that about $26,000 was secured by the sugar trust in unlawful "drawbacks" and other like transactions, specifically charges payment of not more than $10,000.

Judge Holt did not pass sentence. Immediately after the jury brought in its verdict, Austin G. Fox, on behalf of the defendants, asked the court to fix a date on which it could hear arguments on a motion for arrest of judgment. This next step in the fight was set for 10:30 o'clock Friday morning.

After it is disposed of Judge Holt will fix the penalties, which, it is expected by Henry L. Stimson, United States district attorney, and his assistance, will be near the maximum. These operate only as civil judgments. The defendants, if they refuse to pay, cannot be imprisoned.

First Conviction Under Elkins Law.

The conviction, which came after a trial lasting only three days, two of which were consumed in putting in evidence, marks the successful completion of the first prosecution of either a corporation or an individual for infraction of the Elkins law ever initiated in the federal courts of this district.

The indictment on which the railroad company and its servant were convicted charged the giving of rebates to the wholesale sugar jobbing firm of Edgar & Earle, of Detroit, on demand of the sugar trust. Rebates of 5 cents from the tariff rate of 23 cents a hundred pounds were paid by the railroad company by voucher.

It seems that in the spring of 1904 Edgar & Earle had received a consignment of 10,000 barrels of sugar by water from the seaboard at a rate of 13 cents a hundred pounds. They threatened to get all their sugar that way. The trust, to hold their trade, compelled the railroad to give them the inducement of a 5 cent rebate with a quick haul.

Counsel for the defendants today continued to show at every turn their intention of fighting the case on technical grounds.

The morning session was consumed by Attorney Stimson in putting into evidence drafts, letters, etc., sent by the railroad company to the trust in payment of rebates. Attorney Fox admitted the New York Central eventually paid the rebate claims to the sugar company on Detroit shipments.

No Defense Introduced.

No defense whatever was put in by the accused, full reliance, apparently being put in objections, by which later it is planned to upset conviction in an appeal against the constitutionality of the Elkins law.

After Judge Holt had denied all motions Attorney Fox summoned up for the defendants, saying:

"There is no evidence to show that the corporation, through its president or any of its directors, can be guilty of the offense charged, as it was not informed its employe was giving any rebates. Everybody concerned in the direct rate of the road thought the money being paid out was merely for overcharges arising out of mistakes in the course of the railroad's regular business. The agents of the road have merely done the only thing they thought could be done to get business which otherwise would have gone by water routes, immune from the regulation of the interstate laws for carrying freight."

Attorney Stimson then summoned up for the government. No member of the jury could fail to see, he said, that the system of giving rebates must have been known to the president of the road. The Elkins law, he explained, plainly made an illegal act of an agent of a corporation the act of the corporation itself.

The jury was out about three-quarters of an hour.

PHYSICIAN GOES ACQUIT OF MURDER

TOMS RIVER JURY DECLARES DR. BROUWER NOT GUILTY.

Man Tried for Murder of His Wife by Poison is Freed Amid Rejoicing of Friends.

Toms River, N. J., Oct. 18.—After deliberating less than half an hour the jury in the case of Dr. Frank Brouwer, charged with the murder of his wife by administering arsenic and cut glass while she lay on her sick bed, returned a verdict of acquittal yesterday. The court room was crowded when Judge Hendrickson ascended the bench to hear the verdict. Brouwer was brought in looking pale but showing little signs of nervousness. The jury filed into the box and when the foreman was asked if a verdict had been reached he replied promptly: "We find a verdict of not guilty."

Court Room in an Uproar.

Instantly the court room was in an uproar. Men and women cheered and applauded in spite of the rapping for order and the court officers had difficulty in suppressing the noise. Finally when quiet was restored Dr. Brouwer was formally discharged. He was so overcome that he could scarcely speak. At this point the applause was renewed and women waved their handkerchiefs, while scores of Dr. Brouwer's friends crowded about him and offered their congratulations.

When the excitement had died somewhat Dr. Brouwer shook hands with his counsel and turning to Judge Hendrickson thanked him for the impartiality of his charge to the jury.

Thanks Jurors for Verdict.

Brouwer then asked permission to address the jury and when it was granted said:

"I am thankful, very thankful, for the way you have treated me and I hope that none of you will ever be placed in such a position as I have been."

The doctor then shook hands with each juror. As he turned from the jurymen, men, women and children again pressed about the acquitted man, who finally backed up to a wall of the court room and grasped each extended hand as the crowd, shouting its congratulations, filed past him. A 14-year-old girl paused in the line long enough to kiss him.

Once free of the court room crowd Dr. Brouwer was hurried by his counsel to the street, where another crowd that had been waiting cheered and followed him as he walked rapidly towards his home. Passing the postoffice, Dr. Brouwer saw Miss Stella McClenahan and stopped to receive her congratulations.

Affecting Scene at Home.

As Dr. Brouwer came within sight of his home his aged mother and his little boys appeared in the doorway. The boys quickly ran into the arms of their father, who, catching them up, one on each arm, ascended the steps to the house. As his head reached her level his mother threw her arms about the three.

A moment later Dr. Brouwer turned to the crowd which had remained at his heels throughout the affecting scene and briefly expressed his thanks for the evidence of good will. With a final cheer the crowd dispersed and the family withdrew to the house.

MEETINGS ARE ALL LARGELY ATTENDED

BIG CROWDS TURN OUT TO HEAR DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS.

Charivari Party Wrecks Furniture, Steals Nuptial Bed and Siezes Political News.

One of the conspicuous features of the present campaign are the tremendous crowds which are attending the democratic meetings in both city and county districts, and political leaders are a unit in declaring that this condition forecasts a splendid victory for the party at the polls in November.

Few are able to recall an "off year" in Allen county when there was more genuine party loyalty manifest, or when there was a more marked party interest in political affairs. The city meetings which were inaugurated Monday evening have all of them drawn crowds that were much larger than could be accommodated in the halls where the gatherings were held. This was conspicuously true in the Ninth ward last evening, when 300 voters crowded into the Racine building and more than half as many more found it impossible to get within range of the speakers' voices. In St. Joseph township last evening the crowd numbered more than 200, and the interest is infinitely better than during the presidential campaign two years ago. Party members are all pulling together for a victory in November.

Mayor Hosey, in the Ninth ward meeting last evening, continued his argument for municipal ownership, and urged the voters to cast their ballots in favor of the construction of a city lighting plant. He declared that the city now had on hand enough money to build a plant ample to furnish from 500 to 600 street lamps at a saving to the taxpayers of $20,000 per year, and he asked the people to reiterate their former endorsements of the municipal lighting project.

Attorney A. E. Thomas devoted his attention to county affairs, citing illustrations to sustain the assertion that county affairs had been capably administered under democratic rule in the interest of the tax payers, commending especially the work of County Assessor Eggeman, whose efforts at unearthing property not listed for taxation had added something like $60,000 to the county treasury. Judge Hench, Judge O'Rourke, W. H. Scheiman, Joe F. Gotz, Joseph N. Mason and a number of others spoke briefly.

This evening a democratic meeting will be held in the Tenth ward at Hartman's hall, where Hon. J. M. Robinson, A. E. Thomas and H. L. Somers will speak. At Sheldon the speakers will be W. C. Ryan, John Eggeman and W. H. Fruechtenicht. Judge O'Rourke and F. E. Zollars will speak at Arcola.

Friday evening a Sixth ward meeting will be held in Riedmiller's hall, on Fairfield avenue. A. M. Schmidt, A. E. Thomas and W. H. Fruechtenicht delivering the addresses, while at Scipio Center Judge Hench and John W. Eggeman will address the voters.

The democratic county central committee will hold a meeting Saturday afternoon.

County Chairman Hoffman has returned from Maysville, where he was called by the critical illness of his father.

Republicans held a meeting in Pleasant township last evening, sixteen of the candidates being present to meet the voters. This evening the republicans will hold a meeting at Neumeier's hall, East Lewis and Ohio streets.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS PLANS.

The plans for the house-to-house visitation to be taken in this city on Thursday afternoon, October 25, at the instigation of the pastors, are being perfected and it is expected that all will be in readiness for the enumerating at the proper time. A. S. Coverdale, who is chairman of the District Director's committee, has divided the city into 20 districts in order to systematize and facilitate the work. This evening Mr. Coverdale is to have a conference in the Railroad Y. M. C. A. at 7:30, of a number of gentlemen who are interested in the visitation and plans will be laid for getting the work done in a single afternoon.

Several lists of visitors have already been forwarded to General Chairman Chas. A. Hood, at 315 Elektron building, the headquarters of the movement. In order that the committee may know about how many homes are in a district, the fire insurance atlases are being consulted and a count of the homes made.

This afternoon the sub-committee of pastors of which Rev. H. B. Master is chairman, held a conference at visitation headquarters.

STORM CUTS CUBA OFF.

No Communication With Havana Up to a Late Hour.

New York, Oct. 18.—Cable communication with Havana, which was interrupted late last night had not been restored at an early hour this afternoon. The break was undoubtedly caused by a severe storm, which swept over Cuba and which was described by the Havana operator just before communication was lost, as having reached cyclonic proportions.

Press despatches received early last night stated that the hurricane with rain prevailed in the Cuban capital and that the United States troops in camp Columbia were much discommoded. Later the Havana operator told Key West that the storm had increased in fury and that the storm was levelling the inland wires leading from the cable hut. Then followed an entire break in telegraphic communication and up to 8 o'clock this morning the wire connection had not been restored.

It is more than likely that the storm has caused damage in Havana and its vicinity.

Key West, early this morning, reported that a heavy rain and wind storm had reached the Florida coast.

Harry Glutting, of this city, has gone to Grand Rapids to reside permanently.

LIQUOR DEALERS MAKING A FIGHT

TEMPERANCE PEOPLE ALSO ARE WAGING HARD BATTLE.

Commissioners Hear Evidence in Jefferson Township Case—The Court News.

In the commissioners court the battle against the issuance of liquor licenses in Jefferson township was taken up and all of the forenoon and most of the afternoon was consumed in hearing evidence, at the conclusion of which the matter was taken under advisement as the board wants to hear arguments and also wants to go over the testimony offered.

The liquor interests have endeavored to prove that one or two of the signers of the remonstrance were not legal voters and that others moved out of the township after signing and before the document was filed. There is a difference of about five names in favor of the temperance issue if all are allowed to remain, but the liquor men seek to discredit eight of the signers.

Got Drunk Wedding Day.

Lillian M. Kitchin filed suit through J. E. Graham in the superior court this morning asking a divorce from Roy Kitchin, to whom she was married in September, 1904. She says he got drunk the day he was married and continued the excessive use of intoxicants until they separated, April 14, 1905. She says he would not support her and forced her to provide for him most of the time they lived together. He has deserted her, she says, and is now living in Cincinnati.

SUNKEN SUBMARINE HAS BEEN LOCATED

GRAPPLING LINE BREAKS WHEN LUPIN IS SEIZED.

Belief is That French Torpedo Boat is Now the Coffin of Officers and Crew.

Bizerta, Tunis, Oct. 18.—10:35 a. m.—The sunken submarine boat Lutin was located this morning by the tug Cyclops.

A hawser, which was attached to the sunken vessel parted during the night. The work of dragging for the submarine boat was resumed at dawn, but it was not until 9:30 a. m., when she was definitely located. The dragging was done by two torpedo boats, four tugs and small boats from the British warships.

It was established today that the crew of the Lutin consisted of two officers and fourteen men.

HAVE LITTLE HOPE IN PARIS.

Ministry of Marine Satisfied Crew of Lutin Perished.

Paris, Oct. 18.—In spite of the fact that it was announced from Bizerta this morning that the spot where the submarine boat Lutin, sank on Tuesday, had been definitely ascertained, hope of rescuing her crew has been practically abandoned at the ministry of marine. Indeed, the prevailing impression there is that the crew were probably immediately killed or rendered unconscious by the accident, the cause of which, however, is still a mystery, though theories on the subject are numerous. The naval officers are generally of the opinion that when Fepoux ordered the boat to be submerged, in the rough sea then running, the helmsman depressed the rudder too much and the Lutin pitched to the bottom, overturning her accumulators and suffocating the crew with the fumes from the acids before they had time to release the safety weights or the telephone buoy. The water pressure is sixty pounds to the inch at the depth where the submarine boat lies, 36 meters, which, it is believed would be sufficient to start her plates, especially if it is true, as announced in a special dispatch from Bizerta, that the Lutin stranded a fortnight ago, that her hull may have been injured and that she was not docked after having been hauled off.

The ministry of marine is coming in for a lot of criticism owing to its failure to properly equip the Bizerta naval station with salving apparatus as it was proposed to do after the disaster to the submarine boat Farfadet, which sunk last summer off Bizerta. Some of the newspapers express the opinion that the repeated accidents to submarine boats should lead to an international agreement to prohibit their use, claiming that it is proved that they are more dangerous to their own crews than they are ever likely to be to an enemy.

MARINE MINISTER GOES.

Sails for Bizerta to Direct Work of Raising Lutin.

Marseilles, Oct. 18.—Marine Minister Thomson sailed for Bizerta today on board the armored cruiser Jeanne D'Arc, to supervise the efforts being made to raise the submarine boat Lutin. Before leaving Marseilles the minister said he intended to make a personal inquiry into all the facts attending the disaster in order to determine the responsibility and to adopt measures to prevent a recurrence of a similar accident in the future.

The British battleship Implacable, the armored cruiser Carnarvon and the torpedo boat destroyer Albatross have arrived here from the island of Malta to assist in raising the Lutin.

MAD MOB INVADES HOME OF A BRIDE

WISCONSIN COUPLE VICTIMS OF DIRE OUTRAGE.

Charivari Party Wrecks Furniture, Steals Nuptial Bed and Sieze the New Husband.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Oct. 18.—Philip Bellier, a bridegroom of a day, is wondering today if it pays to get married after all.

Immediately after the ceremony his misery began. It was caused by the descent on the home of his bride, Miss Elizabeth Proulx, who lives with her parents on a farm in the town of Tildening, of 100 men and women bent on giving a charivari to the newly married pair.

The house was stormed when refreshments were refused, windows were broken, lace curtains torn down and trampled upon and even the bridal chamber was invaded. Here the raiders seized the nuptial bed, took it to pieces and carried it away with them. Even the mattress and bedclothing were not spared.

Nor was this the end. The mob then broke into the milkhouse on the farm in search of liquor and finding none turned the milk into the creek.

Parley Over Small Gift.

Finally the bridegroom, who had been in hiding, made his appearance.

The crowd demanded $10 to disperse. Bellier offered the mob $4, but it spurned this offer with loud guffaws.

Thereupon he was seized by the women in the party, hugged and kissed until he shrieked for mercy. He offered twenty women who had surrounded him $2 if they would give him his freedom and they said they would, providing he gave the men $4 more.

This was agreed to and the bridegroom, with his clothing nearly torn from his back, was released.

The money satisfied the crowd, which dispersed at once.

Interior Strewn With Wreckage.

The sight that greeted Billier's eyes when he returned to the house made him wild with anger. The whole inside of the place was a mass of wreckage. Broken furniture, window glass and trampled clothing were strewn about the floor. In a corner of one room he found his bride crying.

The aged parents of the bride were terror stricken and had been unable to come to his aid.

Then Bellier decided he would have revenge. He and his mother-in-law visited the district attorney's office yesterday and as a result it is expected that nearly 100 warrants will be sworn out for the arrest of the marauders.

Well Known Evangelist Who Died Suddenly on Board a Train While Journeying Home.

SAM. P. JONES.

Samuel Porter Jones was born in Chambers county, Alabama, on October 16, 1847. With his parents he removed to Cartersville, Ga., in 1859. He studied under private tutors and attended a boarding school.

In 1869 he was admitted to the Georgia bar and entered on his professional career with very bright prospects. Nervous dyspepsia, which broke down his health, caused him to begin drinking and his law business rapidly declined.

In 1872 he was converted and the next day began preparations to become a clergyman in the Methodist church. He held various charges in the North Georgia conferences for eight years, and then became agent for the North Georgia orphanage. While in this position he began his evangelistic work and his fame rapidly spread. During his lifetime he held evangelistic services in practically every city of any size and importance in the United States.

His opposition to the liquor traffic frequently brought the Rev. Mr. Jones into conflict with saloon men, and in October, 1885, in his home city, Cartersville, Ga., an attempt was made to assassinate him with a dynamite bomb. His reply was more bitter opposition to the liquor men, and when he ended his campaign not a drop of liquor could be obtained in the town.

The Rev. Mr. Jones was the author of "Sermons and Sayings," "Music Hall Sermons," "Just Your Meanness," "St. Louis Series" and "Sam Jones' Own Book."

As a man the Rev. Mr. Jones was of the easy going, pleasure loving, contented type; yet his face was one of strength, with square jaw and high forehead and black eyes, which sparkled with fun or could shoot forth daggers of fire. He was well preserved. His platform style was full of force, and he touched the hearts of his audience, running the entire gamut of human nature from humor to pathos.

Mrs. Frank C. Mrs. William Denny, of Huntington, was badly burned Wednesday afternoon, in the attempt to save her six-year-old daughter from a horrible death. The outcome of the child's injuries cannot be foretold, but its condition is very critical.

KERR MURRAY ADDITION

THE PLAT herewith is what is known as Kerr Murray Addition and as shown on the plat touches West Main street at the point where Main St. crosses the L. E. & W. Railroad. It lies one-half block west of Greenwood Avenue, which intersects Main street nearly opposite Fire Engine House No. 7 and consists of sixty-three lots.

This Addition was platted last spring by P. A. Randall, and was named the Kerr Murray Addition on account of the fact that the Kerr Murray Manufacturing Company have recently purchased all of the land lying immediately to the south of it along Cressler boulevard, with the idea in view of locating the new Kerr Murray Manufacturing Company's Plant there in the near future.

Only twenty-six of these lots will be offered in this sale as Mr. Randall has decided to hold the remaining lots for the present, for the advance which must come with the locating of the new shops. The lots to be offered Saturday morning face Perry and Illinois streets, numbering form 1 to 13, 14 to 22, and 60 to 63.

PRICES.

All lots numbering from 2 to 13, and from 15 to 22, and lot number 63, price $450 each; lot number 60, price $475; lots numbering 1, 14, 61 and 62, price $500 each.

TERMS.

These lots will be sold for a payment of $10 cash and $5 per month, with interest at 6 per cent on deferred payments, payable at the Tri-State Loan & Trust Company, and a discount of 5 per cent will be allowed for al sums of $100 or more, paid within thirty days.

IMPROVEMENTS.

A new broad cement sidewalk has just been completed in front of these lots; the city water is now at the corner of Greenwood and Illinois Avenues and the Addition has the benefit of the main sewer.

Sale Commences Saturday Morning, October 20th.

Representatives on the Ground EVERY DAY to locate the lots.

These lots are central, and located as they are in the manufacturing district, we predict a record breaking sale; as we are only going to sell twenty-six lots, you had better see them at once, if interested.

Wall street odds of 4 to 1 on the election of Hughes may encourage a lot of fellows, but are hardly calculated to fill the band wagon in a campaign like that going on in New York.

Those railroad officials down east who have been rebating the sugar trust will, according to a jury's verdict, devote a rather sizable bulk of their earnings to sweetening the federal treasury.

Former experiments with submarine boats have signally proved that as divers the craft leave nothing to be desired. But they show a fatal fondness of sticking their noses in the mud and staying there. Submarine navigation has become more or less a practical success, but the element of danger is and always will be an acute factor in the navigation of the lower waters.

Bankers at St. Louis are much concerned with the problem of an elastic currency. The average man of your acquaintance, however, continues to wish for an adhesive currency to fill a long felt want.

The Cuban civil list may not be large enough to provide a job and a salary to all of the patriots of the late revolution, but the creation of an army offers excellent possibilities. There is no reason why Cuba should not raise a crop of colonels.

Senator Foraker continues to shy hard, but handsome word-painted bricks at his excellency, the president of the United States. That man never will forgive Roosevelt for forcing him to be proved wrong on the railway rate measure.

The Ohio supreme court has upset the Drake commission law which provided for an investigation of the affairs of Hamilton county, but the decision of that high tribunal came late enough not to interfere in large part with the purpose of the probing. Half a dozen county treasurers came forward and confessed to irregularities in the handling of county funds and restored about a quarter of a million dollars to the people. Even a bad thing coming at the right time is not so deplorable as an abstract view of it might make it appear.

President Roosevelt has been importuned to lend his good offices to the settlement of factional strife in the republican party of almost every state of the union. That he did intervene in New York, practically supersede old leaders who were at war and force the nomination of Hughes is not to be disputed, but he declines to go outside his home state to patch up party peace. No doubt the president could do much to compose quarrels in various states, but for the most part his efforts in that line would prove a thankless task and unlikely to lead to happy results. For instance, in Iowa the revisionists and the standpatters could hardly be brought together upon ground of mere party harmony for harmony's own sake. Other states present something of the same situation. The president is too shrewd a man to hunt trouble where there may be a doubt of his getting away with it.

From over this congressional district comes word that the earnest, energetic, determined work of Dr. J. W. Morr, democratic candidate for congress is making itself distinctly felt. Dr. Morr makes no pretensions to oratory, but he is impressing the people in modest talks that if elected to congress he will serve them and all their interests with the same diligence and care that he is devoting to his canvass for congress. Dr. Morr in his speech accepting the nomination last June promised the democrats of the district that he would devote his time until election to the hardest work of which he was capable to achieve a democratic victory in this district and he surely has been keeping that promise.

Just what it is expected the democracy of Indiana is going to gain by an attack on Governor Hanly's exposure of boodling and graft in the state house and his driving from place and power the officials guilty of mis-conduct will have to be explained in detail to be made clear. That the governor won the approval of a vast majority of the people of the state by his course must be patent to all who observe the drift of public sentiment. That he opened a crusade on the gambling resorts at French Lick and West Baden raised him even more in the esteem of the people. Any notion that the democratic position can be strengthened by attacks upon the governor along these lines seems an egregious blunder.

TWO KILLED IN COLLISION.

Two Santa Fe Express Trains Came Together Head-On.

Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 18.—Two men were killed while more than a score of passengers were injured as the result of a head-on collision between two Santa Fe express trains near Manzanillo yesterday. Both locomotives were totally demolished as was the baggage car in the east bound train. With the exception of the baggage car on the west bound train the other coaches were practically uninjured, none of them leaving the track. Among those injured were:

—— White, Lima, Ohio, neck and back hurt and Mrs. A. L. White, Lima, Ohio, head hurt and arm wrenched.

MOURNS DEATH IN PHILIPPINES.

Mother of Lieut. Calvert, of Kokomo, Prostrated by News of Killing.

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 17.—First Lieut. Robert Calvert, who was killed in the Philippines Thursday, was a resident of this city. He was the sole support of a widowed mother, who is prostrated by the shock. Lieut. Calvert was a West Pointer, and was with the Twenty-fourth regiment. His mother is just home from the Philippines. She thinks the killing was accidental.

When Calvert received his appointment to West Point in 1892 he was a messenger boy at a Kokomo bank. In 1898 he was appointed second lieutenant in the Eighteenth regulars, forming part of the army of occupation of the Philippines, where he was wounded in a skirmish with the natives. Returning to the states he was promoted to first lieutenant in the Twenty-fourth regiment, colored, and was stationed for a time at Fort Missoula, Mont.

In December last he was sent with his regiment to the Philippines for a second time, and was stationed at Fort Cebu until last August, when he was ordered to the province of Leyte. Lieut. Calvert was under orders to return to the states in a few weeks and accept a captaincy.

Report Corey is to Wed Actress Denied by Him.

Despite what purported to be a well authenticated report from Washington that he would marry Miss Mabel Gilman, an actress, in Paris next month, W. E. Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, Tuesday denied the report.

When Mr. Corey was asked Tuesday if the story of his intended marriage to Mabel Gilman was true he smiled and said:

"There is absolutely no truth in the report at all."

"Well, is it true that you are about to go abroad?" he was then asked.

"I have absolutely no intention of going abroad at present and had no idea of making such a journey," he replied.

The troubles of William Ellis Corey and his wife had been before the public about a year when, after announcing her intention of securing a divorce, the wife accompanied by her only living child, a son, seventeen years old, went to Reno, Nev., where she established a residence and brought suit.

The decree, which was unopposed by the steel trust head, was granted on July 30, there being no provision made for alimony. It was generally admitted, however, that Mr. Corey had settled $3,000,000 on his former wife and son.

The Coreys were married in 1883, the young woman at that time being employed as a servant in the household of A. A. Corey, father of her future husband. Young Corey was then working in a coal tipple at $40 a month, and there was no discrepancy in their social positions.

He fell in love with the young girl and they were married. Their life, for many years, to all appearances, was happy, and it was not until Mr. Corey had become one of the Carnegie partners and had accumulated a large fortune that gossip grew busy.

In her application for divorce Mrs. Corey alleged that Mr. Corey had deserted her and come to New York to live, declaring that a reconciliation was impossible. No names were mentioned in Mrs. Corey's suit, the grounds being given as desertion.

THE BIGNESS OF FOREST PARK

The fact that over two hundred lots have already been sold in Forest Park should not deter prospective buyers from purchasing, under the belief that the choice sites have all been "gobbled up." On the contrary, many of the very best lots remain. Remember that Forest Park is a great big place, while many of the other additions to the city are diminutive in proportion. The area of Forest Park is about equal to that of FORTY-NINE ordinary city squares. Think of it!

Things to remember: Prices, $275 to $475. Terms—$10 down and $5 a month; or, if you pay cash within thirty days from date of purchase, 5 per cent will be deducted. The addition has two car lines. It has a good public school. A broad cement walk is placed free in front of every lot. Shade trees are set out free in front of all lots. Six deep wells have been sunk in various parts of the addition. A city water main extends the entire length of the addition. The neighborhood is splendid. It is an ideal spot for a home or for investment.

Building has already commenced in Forest Park. See the addition before you buy a lot anywhere.

THE PIANOLA

Although the great musical authorities have pronounced it ESSENTIAL to an artistic piano-player, no other instrument has any device EVEN REMOTELY RESEMBLING IT. At this advanced stage in the development of piano-player, the public has a right to expect more than a mere striking of the notes in proper sequence. It has a right to expect INTERPRETATION and the ACCENTUATING of the notes that should be accentuated; not a colorless, automatic rendition, but the close approximation of a performance by a great master of the keyboard.

When it comes to choice of a particular make of piano-player, the latest improvements obtainable only in the Pianola would seem to leave no opportunity for dispute, no room for difference of opinion.

Music is FOR THE EAR. IT is never possible to arrive at a correct understanding of a piece of music, or a musical instrument, by simply READING about it. ## Fugitive Cuban Promoter and Plant He Controlled.

Buildings of the Silveira Sugar Co

Manuel Silveira.

New York, Oct. 18.—Facts brought to light yesterday indicate that the flight of Manuel Silveira, Havana agent of J. M. Ceballos & Co., to which the firm attributes its failure, was largely due to the collapse of the Cuban revolution, in which he and some of his associates were financially interested.

It is known that Silveria was opposed to the Palma administration and desired for numerous reasons to have Cuba under a regime which would have been more friendly to his enterprise. Clashing of interests connected with Cuban banks is one of the elements in the situation.

There has been on foot for several months a project to transfer to the Bank of Havana, now in process of organization, the funds of the Cuban republic, which are approximately $15,000,000. The money was in the possession of the Bank of Cuba, and when it was proposed that such a changes should be made Silveira is said to have at once allied himself with the opponents of the administration.

According to John S. Fiske, of Ceballos & Co., Silveria was a director in the institution from which the government balance was to have been withdrawn. The Bank of Cuba even talked of recalling its loans, and the result would have been a general commercial and industrial disturbance.

The congress finally passed a law which provided that the deposits of the republic should not be transferred for at least a year. Silveria, a group of financiers who had been identified with the Bank of Cuba, and large American interests on the island, were determined in their opposition to President Palma. It is an open secret that they lost no opportunity to express their dissatisfaction.

It is undisputed that the recent rebellion was financed in an efficient manner, and it was a question as to how the insurgents obtained the sinews of war.

Silveria shares in the Development Company of Cuba, of which he was advertised as the resident director. J. M. Ceballos is the vice president of this corporation. The company held thousands of acres in Cuba, which it divided up into small orange groves and lots and sold to Americans.

Silveria and Mr. Ceballos were also interested in the town of Ceballos. It has a hotel known as the Plaza, which, if it is ever opened, will accommodate several hundred tourists. The Cerra Grande plantation and other agricultural enterprises would prosper exceedingly if they had increased transportation facilities. It was intended that a railroad should be built which would bring by a more direct route not only travelers to the paradise which was pictured in the Pearl of Antiles, but should also transport the products of the Silveira Sugar company, which is building a large factory.

All these companies were parts of a gigantic enterprise in which Silveira was a guiding spirit. If he had the favor and co-operation of the administration or could call a government into being on which he could depend, it would have been an easy matter for him to have obtained money for his projects.

It was noted that Jose Miguel Gomez, who figured as the head of a revolution, was made superintendent of the plantation of the Silveira Sugar company. Silveira, it is said, had, however, incurred the enmity of the gar company. Silveira, it is said, had given information which led to the killing of the veteran rebel, Quentin Banderos, who wrote to the banker asking for protection and the loan of $100 to send to his wife and children. But the real motive which impelled Silveira to flight is found in the interference of the United States in Cuba and the arrival of Secretary Taft.

Search has been made for the Carmelina, on which Silveira sailed, in every port, but so far without avail. Meanwhile the unraveling of the tangle in which J. M. Ceballos & Co. say his action placed them is being slowly conducted. It was announced that the complete list of the securities of the firm had been obtained and that tomorrow the safety deposit boxes in which they are supposed to be will be examined.

Mr. Ceballos denied emphatically that the firm had had anything to do with the Cuban revolution.

THE QUAKER WAY

Do you know the Quaker idea of medicine and good health? They believed that as the nourishing materials of the earth must first pass into some form of vegetation, and through that mysterious agency of life and sunshine become fit for food, so also must medicinal materials pass into vegetation before they can properly benefit the human system. Such was their belief, such also was their practice.

Sound in both mind and body, their sturdy descendants of the present day are living assets to the wisdom of this doctrine.

To properly prepare the Quake Herb Remedies, for which there was an ever increasing demand, a company was located many years ago, at Fourth and Mill streets, Cincinnati, Ohio, not far from the site of the first Quaker church in Ohio.

In the same location of their humble beginning and by the merit of their preparations alone, the Quaker Herb Company (Inc.) has steadily grown until their present out-put goes into every state of the Union.

One of their best known remedies is the system purifier, Quaker Herb Extract, a specific for diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, used as a cure for rheumatism, catarrh, indigestion, pains in the back and sides, neuralgia, headaches, etc.

It can be obtained at your local druggist's, or is sent on receipt of price, $1.00. Quake Herb Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

This medicine has proven all claims made for it by the Great Dunn. Quaker Herb Extract is for sale by your local druggist.

Between St. Petersburg and Tsarskoe-Selo there is a special line, with a private station at each end, for the exclusive use of the imperial family. Every yard of it is constantly guarded, and the czar himself often drives the locomotive—of course, under the superintendence of the driver proper.—Globe's Railway Exchanges.

DOCTORS SAID HE COULD NOT LIVE.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well." ### HUMAN BLOOD MARKS.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by Dreier & Bro., druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

While simplicity characterized the nuptials of Miss Rose Mary Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fox, and Charles Mahlon Niezer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Niezer, of Monroeville, it was nevertheless a wedding of much beauty. The nuptial mass was read by Rev. P. J. Roche, in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at 10 o'clock this morning. The bridal music from "Lohengrin" announced the approach of the bridal party. Miss Marguerite Niezer was maid of honor. The bride entered with her father and met Mr. Niezer with Robert Fox, who was best man, at the altar rail. The bride wore an exquisite imported empire gown of princess lace, trimmed with duchess lace. A veil of tulle with a coronet of duchess lace was worn and the bridal flowers were a "shower" of lilies of the valley. The costume was exceedingly becoming and the bride was a picture of sweetness and grace as she left the church. Miss Niezer wore an embroidered pink chiffon, trimmed with chantilly lace, a white lace hat trimmed with pink plumes and held pink and white chrysanthemums. During the marriage ceremony the organist played "Traumerei" and during the mass, Maurice Niezer, a brother of the groom, sang the offertory and the Ave Maria. The church decorations were confined to the chancel and altar rail and were pink and white chrysanthemums—for it was a chrysanthemum wedding—and palms. The church was well filled with friends of the bride and groom. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fox and the guests consisted of the bridal party and members of the two families.

The house decorations were beautful, and all flowers were chrysanthemums with the exception of the bride's table. That was done in bride roses and lilies of the valley, with pink shades to the lights and pink satin bows on the corners of the table. The bride and groom left this afternoon for a trip of about ten days. For traveling Mrs. Niezer wore a suit of green broadcloth, with green French felt hat trimmed with bird of paradise. After December the third, Mr. and Mrs. Niezer will be at home at 8715 Rockhill street.

The home of Mrs. Margaret Meyers, 1223 Ewing street, will be the scene of a pretty wedding this evening when Miss Emma, the lovely and attractive daughter of Mrs. Meyers, becomes the bride of William F. Melching, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Melching. The ceremony will be at 6 o'clock and Rev. William Moll is to officiate. The bride and groom will have no attendants other than little Marie Hobrock as a flower maiden and Edward Melching, who will bear the ring. They will precede the bride and groom to their place under an arch of palms, ferns and smilax. The bride's gown is a lace robe with girdle and sash of satin ribbon. The bride will wear a veil of tulle and her bouquet will be made of white rosebuds and fern. Miss Marie will be in white with blue bows of ribbon on her sleeves, one in her hair and a sash of blue. She will hold a basket of white roses and swansonia. Will Young will play Mendelssohn's wedding march while the bride enters the parlor and "Melody of Love" during the marriage service. The decorations of the parlor are in green and white with roses for the flowers. In the diningroom where dinner will be served at 6 o'clock to forty guests, the decorations are pink. Pink candles under pink hoods and pink roses and smilax decorate the table and smilax and pink roses the chandelier and mantel. Mrs. Reiter caters. The bride and groom will spend their honeymoon in Grand Rapids and will be at home after November 10, at 115 West Tabor street. The bride will wear a steel gray cloth suit with gray felt hat trimmed with red wings for traveling.

A lovely card party for Miss Mayme Blair was an event of the afternoon at the home of Miss Stella Hunter. Miss Hunter also included Miss Hull as a special guest and presented both brides-elect with beautiful score cards. The cards were heart shaped and were photographs of each bride done in watercolors. Attached to the cards were single yellow chrysanthemums fastened with yellow satin ribbon. All details of the appointments were in yellow and white, with yellow chrysanthemums forming the floral decoration. The tally cards for the players at pedro were either white wedding bells or yellow hearts in shape. The refreshments were limited to a salad course, served in orange baskets. The guests were particular friends of Miss Blair and out of town guests, including Miss Helen Larmonth, Miss Freda Gleason, Miss Clara Deppen, Miss Gertrude Greening and Mrs. Thompson, of Logansport. Miss Helen Dinnen assisted Miss Hunter.

Ethel Barrymore at Majestic.

No more favorite actress with local theatre-goers comes to Fort Wayne than Miss Ethel Barrymore, so it was no surprise to see the Majestic theatre well filled at her appearance in "Alice Sit-by-the-Fire" last evening. Applause was also generously bestowed, though Miss Barymore had to share honors with her company.

"Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire" is one of Barrie's well constructed and delightful comedies, that almost glitters with a satire as delicate as it is subtile, and the woman who characterized every action's work as "cute" was probably as appreciative of the real humor in the lines as the critic of greater vocabulary. The average American parent not familiar with English customs of keeping daughters like children until they have reached full grown womanhood would hardly understand why "Amy" should be so credulous and suspicious, or so afraid of displaying affection for her elders. Nevertheless the acting of Miss Beatrice Agnew who assumed the role of the ignorant child, "Amy," was fully appreciated until the third act. Then the uncontroled laughing of Miss Agnes and even Miss Barrymore, Miss Nash and Mr. Barrymore aroused the indignation of many in the audience. There was apparently no excuse for such conduct whatever.

Miss Barymore in the role of the wife and mother of forty still looks the young woman she is, and while her charm and magnetism are as great she has pleased Fort Wayne better in previous roles. The work of Miss Agnew, Bruce McRae and John Barrymore contributed materially to the enjoyment of the audience.

In New York the Barrie comedy was always preceded by a one-act play "Pantaloon," in which another Barrymore, Lionel, who is well remembered here in his work in the "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" took the leading part. As it stands "Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire" is too short for an entire performance. People were out of the theater last night before 10:30 and waits between the acts were long considering the few changes made in the setting of the play. —Bagsby.

Empire Coat for Wear with a Trained Gown

Coat from Stern Bros., lined by Miss Dorothy Watson of Stern Bros. Gown by Doucet.

A smart Empire coat, with long graceful lines, which is particularly suitable for wear with trained gowns, is shown in the illustration and features one of the new fall models. Made without a collar, the garment, except about the shoulders, hangs full in well tailored lines from the bust in front and from a point about midway from the shoulders to the waist in the back. While in the present instance black broadcloth is the material and heavy black braid the trimming, light cloths in any of the new fabrics and gold or silver spangled galoons may be substituted in the event of one's preferring a wrap strictly for evening functions.

Striped Tweeds Natty for School Girls' Ulsters

Box Styles Prevail—Stole Effects Popular—Hoods Again Modish.

By Elizabeth Lee.

Striped tweeds bid fair to be very popular for knockabout or school wraps of the ulster variety for high school girls and college students' wear. These coats are especially useful at this time of year, when weather conditions require a thin frock in the house, yet demand a protection on the street.

Exceedingly smart is an imported coat designed for a girl of sixteen, in stripes of natural tones cut in plain box lines and full length. The back is perfectly plain, but in the front begins a stole effect at the neck, which gradually widens, rounding off just below the waist line until it reaches the under arm seam, where the edges are taken in with the back. Tailor stitching decorates the edges of this stole, and at a convenient point pockets are sewn in, though there is not the slightest evidence of these, the hand just slipping through the slits. The sleeves are a medium mandolin shape, with a bias strapping down the upper part of the sleeve, or rather two strappings arranged close together, and in this way forming points with the stripes. An up-to-date hood displays itself over the shoulders and a rolling collar of the goods completes this stylish, practical coat, which, save for tailor stitching, is absolutely unrimmed.

Autumn Suit of Cloth.

The skirt and coat for autumn wear differs very little from last year's models, except that perhaps the coats are a little shorter. The skirts are pleated midway to the knees, and a natty looking suit of this description had a short semi-fitting hip length coat showing two inverted box pleats from each shoulder, back and front, which were held down at the waist line with pointed self tabs secured by bright, flat brass buttons. The collar was rolling but flat, something like a Tuxedo in shape, and was trimmed with braid. Cords and three larger brass buttons formed the closing a little to the left side, and the sleeves, a little fuller than the strictly coat model, ended in braid trimmed cuffs matching the collar in shape. With this, a felt hat in small mushroom shape was provided, trimmed with a chou of plaid ribbon—the hat was navy felt—a gilt buckle and a black quill.

Girl's Exquisite Evening Frock.

Then an exquisitely pretty evening frock for girls of fifteen or sixteen attracted my attention. It was of very pale blue silk voile, made with a very full skirt hemmed on the bottom, quite a deep hem, and above it three almost equally deep tucks. Lastly, about knee length, was inserted a band of shirred ivory point d'esprit, criss-crossed, trellis fashion, with pale blue velvet.

The bodice was made with a plastron of the net back and front, shirred to round yoke depth, the fulness drawn sharply down in the back to the waist line, but slightly bloused in front. This was outlined with flat shaped bretelles of the goods, slashed in the center, over the shoulders almost to waist line, back and front, displaying the net between the slashed edges, being laced together with the velvet. The belt was a girdle of pale blue taffeta, closed with buttons set into frills of point d'esprit. The sleeves were very quaint and pretty. Short puffs were brought into deep shirred bands of the point d'esprit, crossed with the velvet and then queint little hemstitched cambric frills were sewn in as a finish.

Coats for Small Girls.

For smaller girls, say ten, there is an exceedingly good coat model on Empire lines. The original is made from white broadcloth, the short waist defined by a broad stitched band, and four handsome buttons form the double breasted closing of the short body. A double cape falls over the back, but is rounded off to the neck soon after leaving the shoulder seam. The sleeves are full, pleated at the wrists, and end in double turn back flaring cuffs. The only trimming, beyond the exquisite stitching, is a handsome collar of golden brown beaver, and the whole was decidedly a marked example of elegant simplicity. The hat destined to go with the coat was a fine French felt trimmed with soft louisine and white plumes. This cost $35 and was in mushroom shape, a style that promises to be worn very much this fall. It is a shape, too, that is generally becoming to the plump, round little faces of childhood. Even babies are wearing this shape, and speaking of babies reminds me of an exquisite long slip that may be copied by a mother with skilful fingers who desires daintiness before all other qualities. It was fashioned from finest linen lawn, with a very small round yoke embroidered in a tiny design of forget-me-nots. To this was added with veining a slightly full skirt, trimmed on the bottom with a narrow ruffle edged with real Val. lace an inch wide. Above this a running vine of the embroidery appeared and the little puff sleeves were confined with narrow embroidered cuffs. Narrow frills of real lace finished the neck and sleeves, and the price of this exquisite little slip was exactly $90.

Regime for the Thin Woman

(By Margaret Mixter.)

Contrary to the accepted idea the path of the thin woman in her effort to gain avoirdupois is strewn with roses, for all she must do to put flesh on is to take life easily, stop worrying, and eat all the good things that she longs for. In fact for the woman who has time to give up to it the training is one of great luxury except in the case of the one with whom the condition is temperamental.

For in many cases the thin woman is the nervous one, she who carries not only her own burdens, but those of all about her. She worries and hurries and doesn't give herself time to put an ounce of flesh on her bones, and if by chance during the long summer vacation she added a few pounds of avoirdupois she is now wearing it off in a mad effort to get her wardrobe ready for fall, in moving or bothering her head about the domestic problems.

First of all the thin woman who wants to gain flesh must stop worrying. She must eat little and often and drink milk between meals and at bedtime. Fruit in quantities must be a part of the daily diet, cereals, starchy and sweet vegetables, Irish and sweet potatoes, peas, corn and beans and salads of all sorts, not to mention bisque and cream soups.

Hot water should be taken morning and night and hot, not boiled, milk in the same manner.

Every day of her life the thin woman should take a warm or hot bath at night, and if possible a Turkish or vapor bath once a week. If after a hot bath when the flesh is still warm an emollient cream is massaged into the skin it will be fed accordingly.

For this purpose there is nothing better than one made of one gram of tannin, sixty grams of lanoline and forty grams of oil of sweet almonds. First melt the lanoline and oil and when partially cool beat in the tannin.

Another cream which can be similadly used is made from two and a half ounces of lanoline, one-quarter ounce of spermaceti, two and a half ounces of mutton tallow, freshly fried; two ounces each of cocoanut oil and oil of sweet almonds; one dram of tincture of benzoin; two ounces of extract of Portugal and twenty drops of oil of neroli.

If the thin, nervous woman has no appetite and needs something to give zest to her food, Dr. Vaucaire, who has given so many admirable remedies to science, prescribes a tonic composed of six grams of tincture of star-anise, four grams of tincture of rhubarb and six grams of tincture of nux vomica. If from six to ten drops in a spoonful of water be taken a few minutes before each meal a change will soon be noted.

Very frequently the woman who is naturally thin has high strung nerves and needs something to soothe and quiet her, and for this there is nothing more delightful, and at the same time efficacious, than a fragrant water to add to the basin when washing.

Of jasmine water take three ounces; vanilla water, one and a half ounces; acacia water, one and a half ounces; tube rose water, one-quarter ounce; five drops of essence of ambergis, and one-half dram of tincture of benzoin.

Combine everything but the tincture and when all are thoroughly mingled add the zenzoin, drop by drop. If a few drops of this water is added to the water in which the face is washed, or to the tub, it will have a tonic effect.

Sleep is quite as important as medicine to the thin woman, and every afternoon a nap must be indulged in if possible. Even the relaxing of the body by laying down with the eyes closed and with no thought of care will do much to quiet and soothe the nerves. While it is necessary that she should be out in the air as much as possible, she should always be warmly clad, for cold has a disastrous effect upon the thin woman. Of course, not every woman can take the time to put flesh on her bones by following this delightful regime, but she can follow some of the directions, and if persistently adhered to will surely attain to a becoming plumpness of face and figure.

Old Virginia Batter Bread—Beat three eggs, add one pint of corn meal, into which has been sifted one teaspoon salt and two of baking powder. Stir in enough sweet milk to make a thin batter and pour into a very hot, well greased pan. Bake quickly. (Good Housekeeping.)

Boiled Chicken—A chicken over a year old should always be boiled or steamed or fricasseed. Prepare the chicken as usual, and sew it up in a piece of coarse cheese cloth, fitted to the shape, and cover deeply with boiling, salted water (one teaspoon salt to each quart of water), to which has been added a tablespoon of vinegar. Cook gently twenty minutes to the pound.

Just before wrapping the chicken in the cheese cloth stuff with one pint of raw oysters, cut in half, seasoned with a half teaspoon of salt, four shakes of pepper and dot with a teaspoon of butter.

When tender unwrap the chicken and dish, pouring around it the following:

Oyster Sauce—One tablespoonf each of butter and flour, one gill of cream, twelve small oysters cooked three minutes in one gill of oyster liquor, half a teaspoon of lemon juice, one saltspoon of salt and two shakes of pepper and scant one dash of mace.

Cook the oysters, strain the liquor, put it with the cream and turn both upon the roux made from the flour and butter. When the sauce thickens put in the oysters, which should have been chopped coarsely, add the lemon juice and seasoning, and serve the sauce immediately before the oysters have time to toughen. It is hardly possible to be too sparing with the mace. A very few grains will suffice. (Marion Harland.)

Grape Tapioca Pudding—Prepare five cupfuls of thick grape sauce and place it in a saucepan with a cupful of sugar, half a cupful of tapioca, the juice of one lemon and one-fourth teaspoonful salt. Let it boil up slowly, and when it has commenced to boil keep it covered until the tapioca has become clear. Then place it near the ice until it is served, with well-whipped and daintily flavored cream as an accompaniment. (The Delineator.)

Three seasonable recipes are appended from the Delineator:

Grapes in Winter Time—There are several methods by which grapes may be preserved for weeks, if not months, after the vines have been denuded by the frost. One must gather the grapes on a dry day at some time before they have become dead ripe. Place them, then, in glass jars and sprinkle around each cluster enough dry bran to keep them from touching each other. See that there is a thick layer of bran on top, and that the jar is corked and sealed tightly. See that this is buried in a box of sand. Keep it in a cool place, and when the grapes are to be eaten freshen them by cutting off the end of the stem and immersing the stalk that remains in wine for a few minutes. Grapes may also be preserved if they are gently laid between a layer of cotton in a glass receptacle, or earthen jar. The jar must be tightly corked and kept in a cool place, however.

To Keep Lemons Fresh—Hang them in a cool place, in a bag made from netted string. When only the juice of the lemon is used, dry the peel by hanging it up in a paper bag. If you heat a lemon before peeling it you will obtain nearly twice as much juice as you could otherwise extract from the fruit. To preserve lemon juice in good condition for a long time, take a pound of sugar to every pint of juice, and when you have stirred the mixture until the sugar is entirely dissolved bottle it, and, just before corking and sealing it, place a teaspoonful of olive oil on top of the juice. It is best to use small bottles for this purpose, as the contents will not keep long after the cork is drawn. To remove the oil it is only necessary to insert a small piece of raw cotton in the mouth of the bottle, and every drop of the greasy coating will immediately be absorbed.

Freshening Up Potatoes—If the potatoes are old and the cook has reason to fear that they will turn black in cooking, she should add a little milk to the water in which they are to be boiled. This is certain to prevent such unsightly discoloration.

THE TACTFUL WOMAN.

Among the qualities most essential to women, tact may fairly take a front place, for, without it, words spoken and things done with the best motives not only fall often of their end, but may even be productive sometimes of the very evils which they were intended to prevent. No human being can afford to be devoid of tact, although a great many people are in that condition; but it is especially necessary to those whose strength lies in their weakness, or, in other words, those for whom judgment and persuasiveness are the only weapons, says Woman's Life. A tactless woman stirs up the elements instead of soothing them and drives those about her nearly to desperation, simply because, from never studying their peculiarities and hobbies, she has no ieda of what will please or offend, and consequently she says and does things "which rub them the wrong way," and irritate beyond bearing.

Humility does not consist in telling our faults, but in hearing to be told of them; in hearing them patiently, and even thankfully; in correcting ourselves when told; in not hating those who tell us of them.—Woman's Life.

FOND OF PIES.

But Had to Give Them Up.

Anyone who has eaten New England pies knows how good they are.

But some things that taste good, don't always agree. A Mass. lady had to leave off pie, but found something far better for her stomach. She writes:

"Six or eight years ago chronic liver trouble was greatly exaggerated by eating too much fat meat, pastry and particularly pies, of which I was very fond.

"Severe headaches, dizziness, nausea followed, and food, even fruit, lay like lead in my stomach accompanied by a dull heavy pain almost unbearable. I had peculiar 'spells'—flashes of light before my sight. I could read half a word and the rest would be invisible.

"A feeling of lassitude and confusion of ideas made me even more miserable. I finally decided to change food altogether and began on Grape-Nuts food which brought me prompt relief—removed the dizziness, headaches, confused feeling, and put me on the road to health and happiness. It clears my head, strengthens both brain and nerves.

"Whenever I enter our grocer's store he usually calls out 'six packages of Grape-Nuts!'—and he's nearly always right." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason." Read the famous little booklet, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

EARRINGS AGAIN POPULAR.

Earrings have come into popular favor once more, and all the fashionable women who haven't had their ears pierced are going through the operation now so that they can bedeck themselves with these decorative pieces of jewelry. Fortunately for those who have antique earrings, the styles in vogue now are copies of those worn forty and fifty years ago, so that those who have inherited jewelled ear pieces are having the settings made over the stones repolished, ready for use.

Whether American women will follow the French fad of reviving the long earrings is a matter of speculation, but just now those that fit close to the lobe of the ears are considered smart. Few of those shown in the shops have any gold work visible, for the whole of the earring is a round or oval pearl, diamond, garnet, emerald or one of the precious stones surrounded by small pearls or diamonds. The most stunning of these earrings are the ones made of huge jewels that measure from an eighth to three-quarters of an inch in diameter, and as these are enormously expensive in the real, imitation pearls, rubies or emeralds, splendidly made, are being used instead.

Manufactured yearls, since they have all the lustre and soft tints of the real ones, are the greatest favorites for earrings, and as they can be manufactured in any size, the larger they are the more they are admired by the average up-to-date woman.

Dainty Baby Pillows in Cut Work

English eyelet work adapted to baby pillows form one of the most attractive as well as practical of decorations. Either over plain white or a color it is equally effective, and it possesses the further advantage of laundering beautifully.

Done on the finest and sofest of round thread linens with the eyelets symmetrically formed, the work is decorative and satisfactory to do. So many designs in the English eyelet work are to be found in the shops now that to select a suitable one for a baby pillow will be the work of a moment.

There is always the possibility of adapting a design so that it will be perfectly suitable for the object to which it is to be applied, and in no sort of fancy work is this so true as with the eyelet embroidery. If one is sufficiently ingenious to draw special designs some really charming effects may be obtained.

EX-CHAMPIONS IN GORY RING BATTLE

YOUNG CORBETT AND TERRY M'GOVERN MEET AGAIN.

After Six Rounds of Terrific Milling Honors Appeared to Be About Even.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 18.—In one of the most bloody fights ever decided in this city Young Corbett and Teddy McGovern, ex-world's champions, pummelled each other for six rounds at the National Athletic club last night and at the end of the gruelling contest honors were even.

The memorable day at Hartford, Conn., November 28, 1901, when McGovern lost his title, being knocked out in the second round, was nearly repeated last night. Terry was swinging wildly in the second round when Corbett stepped in and caught him with a right hand punch to the jaw, dropping him to the floor, where he lay, taking the count of seven.

He half rested on one knee and at the count of nine was on his feet, slightly dazed, but able to continue the bout. After this round, which caused a perfect tumult, it was either man's fight to the final bell.

In the succeeding rounds each was bent on settling the fight with a single punch, and there were enough wild swings missed by each to knock out a half dozen men.

McGovern In Better Trim.

When the men shook hands to begin the contest McGovern seemed to be a perfectly trained athlete, while Corbett was fat and flabby. To the surprise of the big crowd, instead of the "Terrible Terry" pursuing his usual rushing tactics he started to box, and in this respect his opponent outgeneraled him.

Corbett caught Terry with left-hand swings as the latter came in, and one flush on the point of the jaw sent the Brooklynite staggering across the ring. As they came together again McGovern butted Corbett over the eye, opening up a big gash, from which the blood trickled over his face and body.

Corbett's seconds sent him out in the second round, and McGovern rushed at him like a panther. Corbett caught Terry with a right-hander, which was ineffective, because it landed too high. After considerable feinting Corbett caught the Brooklynite on the jaw, which made it necessary to take the count.

McGovern hugged the round out, and the referee had considerable trouble in tearing the principals apart.

Corbett's Swings Fail.

In the third round Corbett started in to end the contest. He missed four vicious swings, and had one of these landed it would have given McGovern his quietus. Corbett played for the jaw, while his opponent directed his blows to the ridges of fat which were across Corbett's stomach. Before the round ended their heads came together again, leaving an ugly cut over McGovern's left eye, fro mwhich the blood flowed freely.

When the bell rang for the fourth round both men came sparring to the middle of the ring and exchanged blow for blow. Neither seemed able to reach a vital spot, and in their struggle to break from a clinch, Corbett slipped down, but was on his feet in an instant. Each tried to land a right-hand swing, and scores of blows were missed. At the end of the round Corbett seemed tired, and was satisfied to hold on until the referee pulled the men apart. Both were bathed in blood when the bell ended the round.

Excellent handling by the seconds sent the men up in the fifth round with few traces of blood. The first punch from McGovern landed on Corbett's head and opened up an old wound.

Blood Flows Again.

The Denverite retaliated by catching his opponent with a vicious right-hand swing, which opened up again the cut over Terry's eye. This round was a succession of leads and clinches, from which neither could claim an advantage.

The last round brought the men to the center of the ring, and after a slight shake of the hand they were again exchanging blows as though the battle had just started. Both were tired, but their blows did not lack steam. McGovern swung three times with right-hand leads for Corbett's jaw, two of which missed, while the third landed too high to accomplish its purpose.

With his face covered with blood, Corbett simply smiled and came back with a rush, driving McGovern clear across the ring. When the bell rang ending the round and fight the referee and seconds were obliged to separate the men.

The fight by rounds:

First Round is Even.

Round 1—They sparred and Corbett jabbed left to face. Corbett was warned for heeling with his glove. It was evident that McGovern was not going to take any chances. McGovern swung right to heart, and Corbett put right on ear. Corbett jabbed left to face and missed right uppercut as the bell rang. Round even.

Round 2—Corbett drove right to heart and then floored McGovern with right swing on jaw. McGovern took count of nine and then butted Corbett over the eye and split it open. Corbett swung left to neck, and they clinched at the bell. Corbett's round.

Round 3—McGovern swung left to body and Corbett missed rights and lefts for head. They exchanged rights to body and Corbett hooked left to face. McGovern was staggered by right swing on jaw and at once clinched. Corbett hooked left to head and another to jaw. McGovern crossed right to chin and then swung it to back of head. Corbett split McGovern's eye with terrific right swing, and McGovern put light right to wind. Corbett hooked two lefts to jaw and McGovern swung two lefts to wind. Corbett hooked hard left to jaw and McGovern's seconds threw water on him. Corbett's round.

McGovern Comes Strong.

Round 4—They rushed to a clinch and repeated it. McGovern swung left to the body and rushed Corbett to the ropes, but did no harm. Corbett crossed right to jaw and they exchanged left jabs to face. McGovern hooked left to eye, and they exchanged lefts to neck. McGovern swung right to the body and Corbett left to the neck. McGovern shot right to wind and then to jaw. Corbett swung left to face, and they exchanged rights to body. McGovern put two short rights to body and they clinched. They exchanged straight lefts to face and Corbett swung hard left to chin. McGovern hooked left to face at bell. McGovern's round.

Round 5—They rushed to a clinch. They exchanged swings to jaw and then repeated the punches. Corbett swung right to ear and they clinched. Corbett put straight left to face and uppercut right to chin. McGovern hooked light left to face and Corbett shot right to heart. They exchanged lefts to face and McGovern swung right to ribs. McGovern sent right to body and Corbett hooked left to nose. They clinched twice and Corbett jabbed left to face. Corbett hooked left to jaw and McGovern swung right to ear. Corbett drove right to wind, and they were sparring at the bell. Round even.

Last Round is Even.

Round 6—Corbett hooked left to chin and they exchanged rights to body. Corbett drove right to ribs and they clinched. McGovern swung right to head and left to body. Corbett hooked two hard lefts to jaw and swung right to mouth. Corbett uppercut right to chin and McGovern right to body. Corbett put two lefts to face and uppercut right to chest. McGovern sent right to wind and they clinched. McGovern swung rights to body and jaw, and they exchanged lefts to head. McGovern crossed two rights to head and Corbett put light left in wind. Corbett jabbed two lefts to face and they exchanged rights to wind. Corbett hooked right to jaw and McGovern swung two rights to jaw at bell. Round even.

Corbett was taken care of by Alex Greggains, Tim McGrath, of San Francisco; Harry Tuthill, of New York, and Jim Howard, of this city. In McGovern's corner were Charles Mayhood, Joe Humphries, Willie Dorsey, with Sam Harris as chief adviser, all from New York.

Two telegrams were read from the ring, one from Jimmie Coroth, of San Francisco, offering a $20,000 purse for the winner against Jimmie Britt, while Billy Nolan, Battling Nelson's manager, wired McGovern from St. Louis: "Sure victory; go after him from sound of gong, especially the body."

Pioneers Take Two from Bottom Five and Magnolias and Specials Win Out.

Bowlers in the three Brunswick leagues hit the high places last night and some good scores and averages were made in the contests. Ranke & Nussbaum at Last Find a Nickel Cigar Worth Smoking.

When Ranke & Nussbaum, who probably have the largest sale for high grade cigars of any dealer in Fort Wayne, heard that a long Havana filler cigar was being retailed for 5c, they were naturally incredulous. As he wanted to give their customers the best cigars for the least money they got a sample box of the Wadsworth Bros.' Chicos.

The samples were all right and they ordered a trial 1,000 to see how they would please their trade. The result was wonderful, as men who had been buying ten and fifteen cent cigars said they preferred the Chicos. It is a good and satisfactory smoke with a clear Havana aroma.

Try a Chico today and you will enjoy it, if you like a good cigar.

VAUGHN LUGS OFF SOME EASY MONEY

CLAIRVOYANT EXERCISES HIS MAGNETIC POWER.

Gets Mrs. Teeple's Hundred and Fifty and Digs Out in Great Haste.

An affidavit was filed in the city court today by Mrs. S. W. Teeple, of 2324 Miner street, charging E. N. Vaughn with feloniously lugging away about $150 of good and lawful money that she had accumulated by practicing strict economy in the conduct of her household affairs.

Vaughn advertised himself as a clairvoyant, palmist, medium and any old thing to get the money and set up shop about two weeks ago at 1129 Clinton street, where Mrs. Teeple consulted him and confided among other things that she had the coin but was not a good financier and afraid to invest it. He told her that he had a magnetic power that paid bigger returns than Standard Oil stock and all she had to do was to let him seal the money in an envelope, hang it around her neck and that his magnetism would do the rest.

She believed him and he performed his part of the agreement with the proper incantation and she went home to watch her money double itself. In a day or two and before the time fixed by Vaughn she got uneasy and opened the envelope to find her money intact. She went back to the professor and apologized for her lack of faith and asked him to seal up the wad again. He sealed up a lot of paper, hung it carefully about her neck and told her to leave it there three days. In the meantime he made his plans to leave although his license does not expire for some time.

When her curiosity prompted her yesterday to open the envelope Mrs. Teeples found a bunch of paper and she hiked for the professor to find that he had cleared port and transferred his operations to new fields. Vaughn had with him his wife and an advance agent and is billed this week for Indianapolis. He did not room at the Clinton street house and told there that he stopped at the Avelne but he was not a guest of the hotel during his stay.

He did a big business while he was here and probably got out with a nice bunch of easy money. He agreed to answer three questions for half a dollar and if a fourth was asked he generally fixed the price of an answer at any figure he thought his victim would stand, the usual price ranging from $1 to $5.

Detective Soliday was put on the case last night and found that the professor had left town in company with his wife. A telegram was sent to the Indianapolis police today to look out for Vaughn and round him up if he shows there.

SMUGGLERS CAUSE OF MUCH TROUBLE

CHIEF PROMOTERS OF POLITICAL ROWS IN SAN DOMINGO.

Monte Christi Headquarters for Smugglers and Center of Revolutions.

Washington, Oct. 18—Smugglers are the chief promoters of political dissensions in Santo Domingo, according to reports received at the state department concerning the unsettled conditions in the little republic and the failure of revolutionary leaders to enter into an agreement to surrender and keep peace.

Monte Christi is the headquarters for smugglers and is the center from which all recent revolutionary movements have developed. It is located near the Haitien boundary across which it has formerly been the custom of merchants to smuggle large quantities of goods.

Since the United States has undertaken to collect the customs at dominican ports a strict enforcement of customs duties has resulted and smugglers have been much annoyed by collectors. Several months ago two custom office employes were killed by smugglers and the friction between the officers and smugglers has since been very intense.

By stirring up political dissensions and promoting resolution it is said the smugglers hope to overthrow the government of President Caceres, which is co-operating with the American officials in collecting all duties on goods entering the republic. Under another president the smugglers feel that they might enjoy greater freedom, and at any rate the confusion caused by revolutionary movements enables them to continue their occupation.

FORAKER TAKES A RAP AT ROOSEVELT

AT VETERANS' MEETING MAKES SENSATION ATTACK.

Ohio Senator Declares He Fears Avarice Less Than He Does Greed of Power.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Senator Foraker, of Ohio, in delivering an address last night at the reunion of the society of the Army of the Cumberland caused a big sensation by a veiled but nevertheless direct attack on President Roosevelt.

"I am less afraid of the greed of avarice than I am of the greed of power," declared Senator Foraker. He made this declaration at the end of a speech on the negro question, just after saying that the protection of the negro was as important as the trust question and referring to President Roosevelt's alleged desire to sweep aside judicial decisions he deemed erroneous.

Senator Foraker sprang this sensation at the close of his speech and henceforth the sole topic of conversation among the veterans was the Ohio lawmaker's attack on the chief executive.

Wants Negroes Protected.

The senator in his address reviewed at some length the great struggles of the civil war and some of the results growing out of that conflict and then continued:

It seems incredible that the government that is all powerful to accomplish the long list of splendid achievements mentioned, that is all powerful to do the works that have been wrought at home and abroad, is yet nevertheless incapable of protecting at home, on our own soil, under our own flag, in the enjoyment of all his constitutional and political rights our humblest citizen.

Without any preparation for freedom and the assumption of the responsibilities of citizenship the negroes might be expected to make but little advancement, even with everybody lending them a helping hand, but particularly so, having to contend as they did against all the prejudices and hatreds born of their previous condition.

And yet, while we have seen their population barely double, we have seen them accumulate property which they today own in their own right to the amount of more than $500,000,000. We have seen them while struggling up out of poverty yet seeking and finding education until where probably not one man in a thousand could then read or write, today less than half of them are illiterate.

Loyal to American Flag.

They have their bad classes, as every other people have, and many more probably than they should have, all of whom must be rigidly dealt with under the law, just as other criminals, but as a people they have ever been loyal to American institutions and loyal to the American flag. In every war through which the country has passed they have, so far as we have permitted them to do so, borne an honorable part.

To talk about eliminating the black man by deporting him to Africa or some other foreign country to be acquired by us for that purpose is the veriest nonsense. No such thing is within human possibility and it would not be desirable if it were.

Some other remedy must be found and it must be one consistent with the recognition of his manhood and with his just rights as a citizen of this republic.

It is important to protect Cubans in Cuba, but it is even more important to protect Americans in America. It is as important as the regulation of trusts and railroads and business corporations, on account of which we have been invoking the powers of the federal government and with respect to which powers the president has recently announced in public speech that they are hampered and hindered by decisions of the courts that he does not hesitate to say are, in his opinion, erroneous and which should be, therefore, I presume, in some manner reversed or avoided to the end that the work he has specially undertaken and for which he has so conspicuously labored may be carried beyond anything he has yet accomplished.

Makes Fling at President.

If I understand what decisions are referred to I do not believe they were erroneous and I do not like the veiled suggestion that they should be reversed, for I am less afraid of the greed of avarice than I am the greed of power. I would like to see both restrained with the constitutional limitations our fathers wisely provided.

GOVERNMENT IS INVESTIGATING

School for Immigration Inspectors is Believed Fraudulent.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—The federal authorities are investigating a concern called the Interstate school incorporated, which is inducing young men to part with their money in the hope of securing appointments as immigration inspectors in the service of the United States government. C. L. Snyder, secretary of the civil service commission, declares that no examinations for the office of immigration inspector have been announced by the commission, and as there are now 1,379 eligibles on the list should any vacancy occur, it is not likelyy that any examinations will be held for some time. There is not a single vacancy in the immigration service for the position of inspector.

A Letter From a Son To His Self-Made Father

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 18th, 1906

DEAR DAD:—

Your installment of advice written on the seventeenth arrived without losing any of its spicy flavor, and if you think I'm going to lose my head and jump over the traces because you want me to wear ready-made clothing—you've got another guess coming. No, sir. I'm going to walk along like an old horse and not even prick up my ears, or shy at the autos. Only last night I had all the starch taken out of me and I feel like one of my stiff bosom shirts after I had been playing tennis for a half hour.

I donned my "expensive" as you call it and went out with a couple of our home sports to say nice things to the fair sex. They both had on Hart Schaffner & Marx Varsity Suits that they bought at Patterson's. Say dad, honestly I was sick. Their suits have got mine distanced. The coats are cut three inches longer than my expensive; have box plaits on the side, and well dad, they were dead swell. I tried to keep a stiff upper lip. Told the boys I liked my suit immensely but would rather had the coat a little longer. Charley said: "Never mind Willie, it will be longer before you have another made to order," and I guess he's right. Nearly all the boys here are wearing either "Ely Meyer," Stein Bloch," or "Hart Schaffner & Marx" Suits. I'll be home for my share of the Thanksgiven turkey and then we will go into Patterson's and get my Overcoat. They sent me a style book and I have mine selected so it won't take long.

Your affectionate son,

WILLIE.

P. S.—Just received my "Daily" from Miss L. and she says Patterson has a window of swell Evening Suits. If convenient you might drop in there and have them express me a size 36 Full Dress Coat and Vest, Pants 32x33. Would like a Tuxedo also, but can get along without that until Thanksgiven. W.

REPORT ON REFORMATORY.

Earning Capacity of Institution Shown to Be Gaining Rapidly.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Oct. 18.—Superintendent W. H. Whittaker, of the Indiana reformatory, has completed his biennial report pertaining to the conduct of that institution and it will be presented to Governor Hanly and the board of managers of the institution on October 26. The report shows that the year ending October 31, 1902, the earning capacity of the reformatory was $62,350.67, while the earning capacity for the year ending October 31, 1906, will be $80,000. This will be increased by January 1, 1907 to $110,000, an approximate increase over that of 1902 of $47,000. The report will also show that there are not nearly so many articles made at the reformatory and sent out into the states in competition with outside labor as there was under the old contract system.

BETTING BECOMES MORE LIVELY.

Three to One on Hughes Still Prevailing New York Odds.

New York, Oct. 18.—Betting on the election became more brisk and some large wagers were made at 3 to 1 on Hughes for the governorship. Odds of 1 to 2 were made that Hughes will carry Greater New York. Many inquiries were made for odds on the result in the several counties, but no such bets were recorded. One interesting bet was made by W. Marco with G. H. Buchanan that Hughes carries Greater New York. Marco laid $1,000 to $2,000. Usually the democratic candidate in Greater New York is a 4 or 5 to 1 favorite. This year Hearst is a 2-to-1 favorite in Greater New York. Marco, the curb representative of Wasserman Brothers, laid in all $15,000 to $5,000 on Hughes. Closing odds were quoted at 10 to 3 favoring Hughes.

MAYOR JOHNSON AS MOTORMAN.

Will Operate First Car on Three-Cent Fare Line in Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Mayor Tom Johnson will be the motorman on the first car operated on the 3-cent fare line. He is to become a union man before he boards the car.

President Bauer, of the local street railway men's union in a talk with Secretary Colver suggested that Mayor Johnson ought to become a member of the union if he operated the first car.

"Of course I'll join the union," said Mayor Johnson. "And I'll keep up my dues, too. When I become a member I'll even ask them to elect me as a delegate to the central labor union."

NO MONKEY CAGE FOR HIM.

Iron Article Is Sunk and No Woman Will Join Professor Garner.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Mrs. R. L. Garner, wife of the noted student of the monkey language, makes the following statement: "As several newspapers have informed the public that a Miss Quimorton, of New York, was about to join Prof. Garner in the jungles of Africa for the purpose of studying the monkey language and would occupy an iron cage among the wild beasts, it is but justice to say that Professor Garner will certainly not occupy his cage, as it was lost two years ago by the capsizing of a boat. It is also but justice to state that Professor Garner is in ignorance of Miss Quimorton's proposed trip to Africa."

PUBLIC MAY SEE YELLOW SLIP.

Mrs. Wister May Have Contents Read to Silence Innuendoes.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 18.—A bare possibility exists that the mysterious contents of the now famous yellow slip that halted the contest for the $60,000,000 left by the chemist, William Weightman, may yet be made public. So intense is the interest and so insinuating the innuendoes that have arisen from it that Mrs. Jones Wister, the contestant, may be obliged to renew her case, if for no other reason than to clear her name. Commenting on Mrs. Wister's declaration that she is willing to face the reading of the yellow slip in court, a man who has seen the paper declared yesterday that he didn't wonder that Mrs. Wister's attorneys had not shown it to her, because its contents would shock the sensibilities of almost any woman.

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it, in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

It is the beautiful tone of the Columbia Graphophones that has given them world-wide celebrity. This with durability insured by the highest quality of workmanship and finish, leads the purchaser to pay cheerfully the somewhat higher price asked for them.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON III, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 21.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxv, 14-30. Memory Verse, 21—Golden Text, Prov. xxviii, 20—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1906, by American Press Association.]

This is part of the discourse on the Mount of Olives in response to the question of the four disciples and a sequel to the story of the wise and foolish virgins of last lesson and the wise and evil servants of xxiv, 45, 48. The very similar parable of the pounds was spoken a few days earlier while He was on His way to Jerusalem, perhaps in the house of Zacchaeus. In each parable there is the going away to a far country, the pounds or talents intrusted to the servants, the use or abuse of the same, the reckoning when the lord of the servants returns and the honor given to the faithful and good servants, but the shame and punishment to the wicked and slothful ones. This is in perfect accord with all His teaching and with the teaching of all Scripture. We have had it in several recent lessons, but cannot repeat it too often, that salvation is wholly of grace, but reward or punishment is according to desert. None are truly "His own servants" until redeemed by His precious blood, made His own by redemption. But He often graciously speaks of those who profess to be His as His, taking them at their word, even though He reads their hearts, and giving them every opportunity to be sincerely His if they will. Judas Iscariot and all similar cases come under this head. They are those who seem to have, or think they have (Luke viii, 18, and margin), without really possessing. There is reason to fear that many are thus deceived, thinking that their knowledge of God and of Christ or of the Bible, or their church membership, or baptism, or the communion, or good works, or gifts to the cause, will entitle them to a place in the kingdom, whereas nothing will suffice but the new birth, a sincere and honest receiving of Himself (John i, 12, 13).

We must remember that salvation, one's own personal salvation, is threefold—saved fully and freely and instantly by His precious blood. Then all our life here, after that, is a working out of that salvation, and we are always looking forward to and waiting for the consummation of our salvation in a resurrection body. Out of many passages which set forth simply these three phases we select these three: Rom. iii, 24; Phil. ii, 12; Rom. xiii, 11. The whole three are set forth in Tit. ii, 11-13, and many similar passages. It is very plain that the use or abuse of the talents or pounds comes under the second aspect of our salvation and in a true child of God does not touch our safety, but our service and reward.

Whatever is represented by the talents or pounds, they are the Master's own goods (verse 14), which He intrusts to His own servants as His stewards, that they may use them for Him and in due time give an account of the same. We are put in trust with the gospel, which we are to give to every creature, not pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts, and we are debtors to all who have not yet heard it (I Thess. ii, 4; Mark xvi, 15; Rom. i, 14-16). We are stewards of the manifold grace of God and of the mysteries of God (I Pet. iv, 10; I Cor. iv, 1). We are expected to be wise servants, giving the household meat in due season (Matt. xxiv, 45). In all ministry and in even our eating and drinking we are to seek the glory of God (I Pet. iv, 11; I Cor. x, 31), for our great business here is to show forth the praises of Him who hath called us out of darkness into His marvelous light (I Pet. ii, 9). In the pounds something is represented which each one receives equally, but in the talents it is something which each receives according to ability, yet in each case the Master expects a faithful and diligent use of all that He intrusts His servants with.

The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal, but the same Spirit divides His gifts to every man severally as He will (I Cor. xii, 7, 11). This may help us in some measure to understand the pounds and talents. There is always this comfort—that God expects nothing from us that He does not give us the ability to perform. The five talents that gained other five and the two that gained other two each received the "Well done, good and faithful servant!" (Verses 21 and 23.) The pound that gained ten and the pound that gained five each received approval, but the first received rule over ten cities and the other over five. So he will reward every one according to his works and his faithfulness (Rev. xxii, 12).

The servant with one pound said that he knew his Lord to be an austere and unjust man, which proves that he did not know Him. Neither was he in any sense a true servant. The man with one talent had a similar opinion of his master (verse 24) and is called a wicked and unprofitable servant and finds his doom where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth. So will it be with all who are mere professors and not truly saved. How truly awful to go out from being a respectable member of some church on earth to join the hosts of the lost in the place of awful torment! While the primary interpretation of these parables must have reference to some phase of the Israel question, we have been applying the truths generally to all believers. In the rest of the chapter, which is evidently the judgment of nations (verse 32) according to Joel iii, 1, 2, 12; Zech. xiv, 2-4, the church of this present age must not be looked for among either sheep or goats, but (comparing verse 31 with Col. iii, 4, and Rev. iii, 21) with Him in His throne and in His glory judging the nations.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 18.—First prices of stocks were generally lower than last night on a light volume of business, exceptions were Amalgamated Copper which rose 5⅛, Pressed Steel Car ¾ and two or three other stocks. Anaconda sold down 2 points and Pennsylvania, National Railroad of Mexico preferred and Kansas City Southern preferred large fractions.

Stocks became heavier in tone, although there was a momentary rise of a point in Amalgamated Copper. Bidding up of this stock ceased when the weakness of the general market became more pronounced, and it lost all of its rise. Subsequently it rallied again to near 116 and the rest of the list became steadier. Northwestern lost 2½ and Pennsylvania, Cleveland, C. C. & St. Louis, Bethlehem Steel and Sloss-Sheffield Steel 1. Canada Southern improved 1⅜ and International Pump preferred 1.

Selling pressure was removed from the market during the second hour of trading and the slow recovery was on very light transactions. Brooklyn Transit and Consolidated Gas rose one over last night and Rock Island preferred fell as much. Bonds were heavy.

The market at the noon hour was virtually stagnant. Call money rates of 5 per cent discouraged bullish activity. Manhattan receded 2 points but Smelting preferred got up 1.

Obscure stocks furnished the only fluctuations that exceeded the merest fraction. Wisconsin Central preferred and Chicago Union Traction preferred yielded 1 and New York, Chicago & St. Louis 1¾.

The market closed easy. Amalgamated Copper jumped to 117½, 2¾ over last night on the announcement of a dividend at the rate of 8 per cent. This pulled up the rest of the market temporarily. Enormous offerings of Amalgamated Copper came out at the higher level and the prices fell back carrying the whole market with it. Canadian Pacific and St. Louis Southwestern preferred lost 1. Wheeling & Lake Erie 1¾. Beet Sugar preferred 1⅞ and Minneapolis & St. Louis and United States Rubber 1⅜.

PENNSY TRACK INSPECTORS.

Party Will Reach Fort Wayne at Noon Tomorrow.

Trainmaster J. F. Patterson and Road Foreman of Engines C. R. Colmey, of the Pennsylvania, went to Chicago this afternoon to meet the general officers and the inspection party and accompany them over the Western division. The party will spend the night at Clark's Junction and at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning leave for the east, traveling at a moderate gate and reaching Fort Wayne at noon. They will not stop here, as their mission is to inspect tracks only. The party has three trains, the first of eight cars and the second and third of seven cars each, including the observation car which is placed ahead of the engine. The engineemen and train crews are eastern division men who started from Pittsburg and will remain on duty over the entire systems. Engineers and conductors of the various divisions act as pilots over their respective territories. On this division the pilots are Conductor C. A. Pinney and Engineer Harry Westerman on the first train; Conductor Ed Lipsett and Engineer William Schwartz on the second train and Conductor G. J. Tuckey and Engineer Joseph Voirol on the third train. The party will spend Friday night at Crestline and cover the eastern division Saturday, reaching Pittsburg about 5 o'clock in the evening. It is said this inspection will have nothing to do with the proposed improvements next year as the officials devote all their attention to the condition of the tracks. Prizes are awarded supervisors and their assistants for the best piece of track. General Manager W. W. Atterbury, of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, which means the lines east of Pittsburg, ended his annual track inspection at Pittsburg last night and immediately announced the winners of the prizes. The Klondike prize of $1,200 was awarded to the supervisor and his assistant at Trenton, N. J., C. M. Wisman, supervisor, receiving $800 and L. K. Fairbank, assistant supervisor, $400.

R. L. Baird, supervisor at Middletown, received $600 and his assistant, A. E. Preble, $200, C. I. McMillan, supervisor at Tyrone, on the middle division, received $600, and John Keenan, assistant supervisor, received $200. G. C. Koons, supervisor at Pitcairn, on the Pittsburg division, received $600 and H. H. Garragues, assistant, $200.

The $1,000 improvement prize was awarded to George Goldie, supervisor, and J. Orwig, assistant supervisor on the Maryland division. There was no yard prize awarded this year. These prizes are awarded to the supervisors and their assistants, the percentage being figured on the monthly reports.

The dicision regarding prizes is reached as soon as the inspection party reaches Pittsburg and the announcement of General Manager G. L. Peck, of the lines west of Pittsburg, will probably be made Saturday night. Supt. J. B. McKim, Maintenance of Way Engineer Fred Graham and Assistant Engineer A. S. Bland are with the inspection party.

FAVOR RETAINING OLD MEN.

Railway Surgeons Say Eyeglasses Do Not Incapacitate Engineers.

If the wishes of the railway surgeons of America as expressed unofficially at their annual meeting in the Palmer house, Chicago, yesterday are heeded by the railway companies, engineers and firemen experienced in the service no longer will be discharged for defective eyesight, but will be allowed to wear glasses and hold their positions.

Dr. Nelson M. Black, of Milwaukee, read a paper on the topic at the meeting. He said the objection to glasses was diminishing in railroad circles.

Dr. Richard W. Corwin, of Pueblo, Colo., president of the association, also cited instances where glasses could be worn without endangering the safety of the public. He declared the railroads wanted unified rules for signals and requirements for employes, but said the state laws interfered with definite national measures to that end.

Dr. Corwin talked earlier in the afternoon on the prevention of ill health among railway employes. He said it was the duty of the surgeons and of the companies to prevent sickness among employes as far as possible.

Dr. Corwin declared that any expense toward educating employes in the way of healthful living would pay the railroads many fold in a pecuniary manner.

The importance of clean cars and sanitation was brought out by Dr. E. M. Eckard, of Peoria, chief surgeon of the Toledo, Peoria and Western. He emphasized the dangers resulting from expectoration in the cars.

IN CONVENTION AT COLUMBUS.

It is estimated that 4,000 people are attending the convention of the American Association of Street and Interurban railway men which is being held this week at the fair grounds at Columbus, O. The association is made up of the affiliated organizations of accountants, engineers, claim agents and manufacturers. The Ohio capital city is in gala attire and many novel features have been introduced in honor of the occasion. Among the attendants is J. L. Jacques and J. J. Brennan, of the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley Traction line.

Donk, who was chief clerk at Ashley for the Wabash motive power department, will be transferred to Montpelier next week in the capacity of general foreman of the shops and another will be assigned to the position vacated at Ashley. Mr. Donk was formerly an engineer, but he lost a leg in an accident some time ago and was incapacitated for work in the cab. Since then he has been employed in a clerical capacity and now he is to become foreman of shops.

Over 1,000 Farmers Make a Pleasure Trip to Grand Rapids.

BERT CROSBY RETURNS.

Crosby, a Nickel Plate engineer who went to the Isthmus of Panama early in August to work for the government in building the Panama canal, returned to the city yesterday and will resume his old place in the employ of the Nickel Plate. While on the Isthmus, Mr. Crosby was quartered in a building with Engineer Michael Griley and his son, George, who are employed by the government. Mr. Crosby says the United States and Fort Wayne are good enough for him and he will remain here in the future.

SHOPS TEMPORARILY CRIPPLED.

The new car wheel shops and other portions of the Bass works where the machinery is electrically driven are idle today. Last night one of the boilers in the main power plant sprung a leak and is being repaired. This boiler furnished steam for the electric plant and the large air compressor and they are out of commission, of course. A small compressor is still operative and the foundry side of the new wheel shop is running as usual. Repairs will be completed tonight.

AGAIN A PENNSY EMPLOYE.

Charles R. Irwin, who resigned as patrolman on the western division of the Pennsylvania, under Captain H. C. ### BEVERAGE FOR TARIFF CHANGE

Senator Makes Plea for Limited Revision of Some Existing Schedules.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 18.—Senator Beveridge made his first political speech in the present Indiana campaign here last night. Plea was made for a limited revision of the tariff, especially in the case of steel billets. The senator said in part:

"There should be changes in some tariff schedules because the conditions those schedules were made to fit have changed and because we must not imperil the whole protective system by putting off admittedly needed changes until so many of them accumulate that their combined force compels a general revision.

"For example, the steel schedule should be readjusted. Steel billets especially should have attention. Steel billets sell today at $30 at Pittsburg. The present price is not due to demand. Steel billets are controlled by the two or three great steel companies; they are kept at their present price so that the smaller manufacturers of steel products may not have the same advantage the great steel companies themselves have, who keep down to a reasonable price their own finished product in which the smaller companies compete with them.

"There are two or three other schedules like this that ought to be readjusted. The point I make is that changes ought to be made when they are needed, instead of waiting until the whole tariff scheme goes down before the general outcry against it."

Senator Beveridge, in concluding, said while the present tariff law was the best general adjustment of tariff schedules ever devised it was not immortal.

5,000 ARMOUR HAMS SEIZED.

Action by Cincinnati Meat Inspector Follows Series of Complaints.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 18.—Five thousand pounds of ham in the Armour & Co. warehouse supposed to be unfit has been seized by Chief Meat Inspector Good. Ten thousand pounds of the ham have already been sold in Cincinnati, the 5,000 pounds seized being the last of a shipment from the East St. Louis plant of the company on Sept. 24.

Complaints have come to the health department from different butchers in Cincinnati that the hams in the first lot were not fit for use and that customers were returning them, saying the meat was bad. Inspector Good procured samples of the meat and turned them over to City Chemist Samson, who will make a thorough examination of them and will probably submit his report Thursday. The hams have become "sore," as it is known in the trade, according to Dr. Good. To the eye they appear all right.

Dr. Good has refused to state how dangerous it would be to eat any of the meat or whether or not the meat will be condemned. "What we do in the matter will depend entirely upon the report of Chemist Samson," he said.

Bloodhounds brought from Noblesville Tuesday night and put on the trail continued to run from the O'Dell house toward the railroad depot, where it was learned that Heeter had taken a train for Kentland at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. Heeter had previously been arrested at Kentland, but the action of the bloodhounds turned the attention of the officers toward him again and he was re-arrested. He was at once taken to Burnettsville and brought into the presence of Mrs. O'Dell, who, it is said positively identified him as her assailant. Talk of mob violence was so strong in Burnettsville that it was not thought wise to leave him there, so he was brought to this city and placed in jail awaiting his preliminary hearing, which will be held Saturday morning.

You know the ordinary stove cannot be made proof against air-leaks, because the joints are plastered with stove putty.

As soon as the putty dries up, and falls out, the air is sucked in through the cracks—and the gases which should be burned, and a large part of the heat escape up the chimney.

Poor radiating surface and leaky joints mean many dollars' waste in high priced coal.

Imperfect combustion means a loss of the best heating half of soft coal, the Gas Half.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove saves all wasted with other stoves. A hat full of the cheapest coal, costing one cent, holds fire over night.

We will set one up, backed by our and the manufacturer's guarantee at prices from $10 and up.

GUARANTEE:

1—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size with soft coal or slack.
2—We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with the same size fire-pot.
3—We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning, with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
4—We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal thirty-six hours without attention.
5—We guarantee a uniform heat day and night with soft coal, hard coal, or lignite.
6—We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
7—We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and dust proof.

Twelve years' continuous experimenting has developed Cole's Hot Blast—a stove which burns any kind of fuel, and saves all the heat.

Avoid imitations—none of them have the patented Hot Blast construction, the patented Steel Collar Connection for the elbow casting to stove body, making an everlasting tight joint which cannot open by action of the fiercest heat; the patented compound hinge for ash door; the guaranteed smoke-proof feed door and other patented features which are essential to the success of this stove.

"I Want More Coal"

A great many pretty stoves at delightfully low prices are like Oliver Twist—always wanting more. What matters it how pretty a stove is—how small the price—if it is going to eat so much coal that you have to go into the coal business in order to satisfy it? In buying a stove, this is an important thing to look after. The Prize Stewart is as pretty a stove as you would wish to see, and this coal feature has been carefully looked after. We invite you to call and see it.
